Dear brothers and sister in Christ,

As you read this letter, much ground work is being laid for the foundation of our successful Fall Festival. This is our time to celebrate our community in Christ by putting on the Fall Festival. Thanks to everyone who is working together behind the scenes to help lay a good foundation.

We are blessed to have Mr. and Mrs. Arthur and Cruz Olague serving as chairpersons. They do an awesome job coordinating all the workers. Many hands make light work, so thanks to each one of you who is lending a hand. Please call them at 935-3042 to offer help.

I am really encouraged that you support the Fall Festival with your volunteer hours and monetary contributions. This is a visible sign that our Faith community is working together to promote our Catholic Faith.

Keep up your good work!

Please pick up your raffle tickets. This helps make our Fall Festival a success.

The love of Christ urges us forward!

Sunday's Reflections
Hebrews 5:1-6

YOUR VOCATION

God has chosen you. You may not always feel it. You may at times feel as though you're in the wrong place, the wrong job, or the wrong century. But God has chosen to create you here and now. God has given you gifts to face the present and to prepare for the glory of the future.

We often speak of vocations in terms of religious life. Truly, God chooses some people for special ministry. The Letter to the Hebrews speaks about the vocation of Old Testament priesthood as well as the priesthood of Jesus. "Every high priest is taken from among men," the letter says. It does not say, "Certain men decide to become high priests." Rather, "No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was."

Even Jesus did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest. Instead, God had him in mind with two prophecies from the Book of Psalms: "You are my son: this day I have begotten you;" and "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

It is often easier to see a vocation among religious men and women because their work is totally dedicated to God. But others also have a vocation—in the family, at work, and in society. God has chosen you. God has taken you from among others and placed you in the world now to proclaim the nearness of glory.
