Congratulations to Edward Aguero and Mary Jo Guerra for being elected into the Pastoral Council!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY NEWS

During the month of May, because of your generous donations, SVdP was able to assist 87 families with food. 20 of those families were first time clients. In all, 303 men, women and children were fed through the food pantry. 30 families or individuals also requested and received financial assistance during this same month for utilities, rent, gasoline, and prescriptions. A total amount of $3430.12 was spent on food and monetary aid. Our work can only be done because of the generosity of our parishioners. Thank you so much for your continued support.

Pro-life Hotline...1-800-395-HELP

June 12 "You don't have to be a pro-life activist to be sickened by such ghoulish banality (depicted in Planned Parenthood videos). For nothing turns hearts and minds more against the culture of abortion than its tendency to dehumanize. And what could be more dehumanizing than the reduction of an unborn baby to its parts? Well, this could: The sight of abortion providers confirming over lunch how much less that baby was worth alive than its parts are now that it's dead. (Jeff Jacoby in The Boston Globe, 7/22/15)

WHO IS A DEACON?

A deacon is an ordained minister of the Catholic Church. There are three groups, or "orders," of ordained ministers in the Church: bishops, presbyters and deacons. Deacons are ordained as a sacramental sign to the Church and to the world of Christ, who came "to serve and not to be served." The entire Church is called by Christ to serve, and the deacon, in virtue of his sacramental ordination and through his various ministries, is to be a servant in a Servant-Church.

HOW DO I FIND OUT MORE ABOUT BECOMING A DEACON?

The best place to start is with your pastor, who can put you in touch with the Director of Deacons for your diocese. The Director will be able to outline the various requirements and processes to be followed.

PRAY FOR THE RECENTLY DECEASED AND THE FAMILIES OF THE DECEASED:

We extend our sincere sympathy to the family of the late Israel Miramontes and Juan Moreno who died this past week. We commend their souls and the intentions of the family to our continuing prayers.

Sunday's Reflections
Galatians 2:16, 19-21

GLAMOUR AND CROSS

If you want to become like someone else, you talk as they do, go where they go, read what interests them, and pay attention to their friends. If it is some celebrity, you might hang a poster on the wall, visit their web site, and read about them in magazines. You will wear clothing that sports the logos of your favorite teams, perfume that makes you smell like someone else. We often want a piece of the glamour of whatever made someone else popular.

St. Paul wanted the cross. In order to become more like the one he admired, Paul wrote, “I have been crucified with Christ.” He chose to become like Jesus in thought, word, and deed. He wanted to be indistinguishable from Jesus. “I live, no longer I, but Christ lives in me.”

But being like Christ does not mean living with the glamour. It means suffering at the hands of those who disagree. It means taking unpopular opinions. But it also means having the satisfaction of union with one whose life and death have meant everything to the world.

Paul had lived his life in accordance with the old law, but now he had a new law to follow—the law of the Spirit. He learned that law through unity with Christ.

When we become like Christ we will participate in the pain of the cross, but we will also share the serenity of the Spirit.
