“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” Luke 12:15

Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not store up or hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

ENCOUNTERING GOD

In its fullness, prayer is an encounter with God that transforms the way we see and interact with the world. As so many saints have suggested, it is like a bright light that reveals what we otherwise do not see.

When we stop for a moment the desire to convince God to give us what we want and simply encounter God—to aim our full attention at the light itself rather than using it to see what we want—our focus becomes clear. Suddenly, we see ourselves and the world the way God does ... and for the first time know that things are not the way that they should be. Something needs to change. Often, that something is us.

Sunday's Reflections

1 John 3:18-24

SIMPLE LAWS

There are a lot of laws. Our national constitution is long. Every state, county and municipality have additional rules and regulations. Sometimes you don't know what a law is until you break it. Laws are important. They are necessary. But they are so numerous that it's hard to keep track of them all.

Our church is the same way. Our laws are important to us, but they are numerous. And they change. It is hard to keep up with them. Couldn't it be simpler somehow?

The First Letter of John says God basically has just two laws. "His commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us."

There, that was simple. Or was it?

To believe in the name of Jesus means that we order our lives around this belief: He is the Son of God, the one who came to save the world. His teaching, ministry and example should shape everything we do. And love one another? Well, that's easy when it comes to people we like. But it's not so easy with people we'd rather ignore, or people who have become our criminal enemies. Loving one another is not so simple.

Whether the laws are many or few, they are hard to keep. But those who keep God's commandments "remain in him, and he in them."
