MARY'S EYES

Her eyes of mercy are surely the greatest vessel of mercy, for their gaze enables us to drink in that kindness and goodness for which we hunger with a yearning that only a look of love can satisfy. Mary's eyes of mercy also enable us to see God's mercy at work in human history and to find Jesus in the faces of our brothers and sisters. In Mary, we catch a glimpse of the promised land—the Kingdom of mercy established by the Lord—already present in this life beyond the exile into which sin leads us.

Sunday's Reflections
Romans 8:14-17

OUR POSITION WITH THE TRINITY

We do everything in the name of the Trinity. We begin and end our prayer with the sign of the cross. Many orations at church are offered to the Father, through the Son and in the Holy Spirit.

The Bible often mentions the roles of the Trinity, and one section of Paul's Letter to the Romans is a good example. Paul says that the Father has sent the Spirit to lead us. We receive the Spirit not to be slaves but adopted children of God. The Spirit leads us in freedom, guides our choices, and directs our steps. Because of the Spirit's lead we call God our Father.

Jesus Christ, Paul continues, is an heir to all that the Father has promised. He suffered for us, and God has glorified him. Jesus is the Son of God. The Spirit has made us adopted children of God. Consequently, we are "heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ." We share a privileged position with the Holy Trinity because of the will of the Father, who sent the Spirit, and the activity of the Spirit, who leads us to the Father.

God asks us to suffer with Christ "so that we may also be glorified with him." Human life is filled with suffering. Sometimes we willingly increase it for the sake of others and the message of the gospel. We gain our strength by doing everything in the name of the Trinity.
