ARE WE OPENING OUR HEARTS TO JESUS?

If any of the things that make up my spiritual practices are done out of a hope for gaining something, then I should immediately stop doing them! Our Lady does not care how many rosaries one says or even if one says it at all. However, she does care about the extent to which we are evermore opening our hearts to her Son. Jesus remains the focus and foundation of her eternal life; thus, she continues to serve him by encouraging us to do the same.

Sunday's Reflections
Ephesians 1:3-14

BLESSINGS WITHOUT MEASURE

Those born into a loving family receive blessings without measure. They are given a name and a nationality. They receive food and drink. They are kept clean and free from danger. They receive a language, a faith, a culture, customs, and education. The gifts a family bestows cannot be numbered or adequately acknowledged.

As children of God, we have received blessings as well. The Letter to the Ephesians says we were adopted by God through Jesus Christ. We receive forgiveness. And we receive knowledge of the mystery of God's will. This incredible package of gifts is ours due to the goodness of God.

We are used to paying what something is worth and receiving a wage for our work. But occasionally, some merchant does you a favor. You get a rebate. You buy one and get one free. A debt is relaxed. And it feels like the mercy of God has fallen into your lap.

God has given us the greatest gifts freely. Such generosity inspires us to give freely as well. We share our income with those less fortunate—not because they did something for us, but because we want to be kind. We give up our time to help the church or community—not because we cannot pay for a service, but because commitment requires muscles, brains, and patience as well. God has blessed us, and we can share our blessings with the world.
