WE TAKE GOD EVERYWHERE

You, I, and everyone baptized into Christ takes God everywhere we go. We communicate the presence of God even if we do not mention him. Imagine intentionally living this truth of the faith. Imagine the lives that will be touched by our willingness to be what we have become. Imagine knowing that you bring God into your meetings, the supermarket, your athletic competitions, the classroom, etc. We are never alone, we always have with us all that we need, if only we believe.

Sunday's Reflections
Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

BREAKING BAD HABITS

Old habits are hard to break, but we give it a try. Some people make New Year's resolutions. They seize the opportunity of a new calendar and decide to make a new beginning in their life.

Others use the season of Lent. On Ash Wednesday we acknowledge our faults, and we spend six weeks doing penance for them, in order to rise with Christ as new people on Easter Day.

Some people reach for help when the habits have become addictions. Through individual and group counseling they come to recognize their own limitations, and they take one day at a time to live a new life.

The sacrament of reconciliation helps too. We bring our sins to God and seek the grace of this sacrament to overcome our weakness and strengthen our resolve to follow Christ.

We are not alone. Everyone struggles to break bad habits. And they always have.

The Letter to the Ephesians addressed a group of Christian converts who formerly adhered to Gentile beliefs and habits. Becoming Christian, they should have left their former ways behind. But many of them didn't. The letter tells them, "You must no longer live as the Gentiles do. ... You should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires."

When we turn to Christ we "put on a new self," and we can leave old habits behind.
