THE MYSTERY OF HUMAN DESIRE

The mystery of being human lies in the mystery of desire, which shapes our lives and can change us. Only prayer can transform us into what we desire, that is, if we truly desire God. Prayer is to make real the Word made flesh—in our lives and in our world. Prayer is the Spirit of the Word that transforms our flesh into the body of Christ. It is an awakening to who we are in Christ and to the fact that we are the path to peace. The Franciscan path of prayer leads one to proclaim by example and deed: Jesus Christ lives!

—from the book Franciscan Prayer

Sunday's Reflections
 James 2:1-5

GETTING TO KNOW THE POOR

If a beautiful person walks past you, you may do a double-take. It's human. When you make new friends at school, you'll try first the ones with an attractive appearance.

And if you hear that someone is rich, you'll want to get to know that person. We're always curious to know who has money, and to become their friends—just in case.

Even at church, we probably give more attention to those who have than we do to those who have not. It's human. And it's wrong.

The Letter to James cannot stand this hypocrisy. “If a man with gold rings and fine clothes comes into your assembly, and a poor person in shabby clothes also comes in,” James knows what will happen. You'll pay more attention to the rich than you will to the poor. If we do that, we “become judges with evil designs.”

James appeals to us on behalf of the poor. “Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?” The poor often have a deeper faith, a stronger dependence on God, and a keener insight into the Spirit than do the rich. We owe them our respect.

When you have the opportunity, don't try to meet someone with money. Get to know someone who has less. You will receive a greater reward.
