LIVE AS JESUS LIVED

The New Evangelization calls us to open our eyes to those who might say they have no one. Most likely they won't cry out for help, yet can we befriend those we see each day? Can we stop and notice them as Jesus did? Can we share the good things God has done for us after we have accepted his love and committed ourselves to him? It's not easy. It's easier to get on a plane, fly to Israel, and walk where Jesus walked than it is to stay at home and live as Jesus lived.

Sunday's Reflections
James 2:14-18

MAKE HUNGER HISTORY

Everyone has a right to the necessities of life. Yet many people live without healthy drinking water, a steady food supply, employment, or a home. In the cities of our own country and in lands far away some people lack the necessities of life.

We have opportunities to care for the needy. Some organizations help them get back on their feet through food, loans, and job training. They rely on financial help, as well as the hours that volunteers give on site. From time to time churches take up collections to be sent abroad. In some cases, people blessed with resources have visited countries with a depressed economy, in order to understand the needs, meet the people, and advocate for assistance back home.

On a national level, the budget of our country allocates some funds for foreign aid. But the totals are too often too small. Every citizen has the opportunity to influence the budget by contacting senators and representatives in congress.

The world has enough resources to end hunger and poverty. We lack only the resolve and the willingness to sacrifice.

The Letter of James says, “If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, ‘Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well,’ but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it?” Faith without works is dead.
