THE PATH OF LOVE

Jesus shows us the path to follow Him: the path of love.... It is a real path, a path that leads us to come out of ourselves and go towards others. Jesus showed us that the love of God is realized in love for our neighbor. Both go hand-in-hand. The pages of the Gospel are full of this love: adults and children, educated and uneducated, rich and poor, just and sinners all were welcomed into the heart of Christ.

Inspiring Words from Pope Francis

ALL SOULS PRAYER

Creator of heaven and earth, sure hope of humankind, have mercy on our deceased sisters and brothers.

As we remember them again this year, we thank you for the joys and crosses that we shared on this pilgrimage of life.

Help us to trust in the saving sacrifice of Our Lord Jesus Christ who rescued us by His Body and Blood that we might spend an eternity sharing in the beatific vision.

We pray that the souls of the faithfully departed, through Your mercy, rest in peace.

Amen

Sunday's Reflections
Hebrews 7:23-28

RELIABLE WORKER

In some restaurants it's hard to keep employees. People apply, say they want to work, joyfully accept the job, and then start. Soon they find out why it's called "work". Bussing tables, taking orders, delivering food, seating customers, preparing the bill, getting change—it all takes personal attention to a large number of people at one time. Not everyone can do it. Potential employees like the idea of working around food and people, but many of them don't last. They come and go.

Workers who stick around long enough to learn the business and the customers have exceptional value. Until they retire. Or go on disability. Or, God forbid, die.

Nothing is permanent. Even the most valued people in our lives leave. Others step in to take their place. Some do nicely. Some don't. They never fully replace the loss of someone we admired.

The Letter to the Hebrews acknowledges this situation among Levitical priests in the Old Testament. "They were prevented by death from remaining in office." There had to be many priests from one generation to the next, because no priest was permanent.

Until Jesus. "Jesus, because he remains forever, has a priesthood that does not pass away." He lives forever to make intercession for us. He is always on the job. He helps us in time of need. We will come and go, but Jesus lives forever.
