BAPTISM AND LIFE

"Whoever is moved by love begins to perceive what "life" really is. He begins to perceive the meaning of the word of hope that we encountered in the Baptismal Rite: from faith I await "eternal life" - the true life which, whole and unthreatened, in all its fullness, is simply life. Jesus, who said that he had come so that we might have life and have it in its fullness, in abundance (cf. Jn 10:10), has also explained to us what "life" means: "this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent" (Jn 17:3). Life in its true sense is not something we have exclusively in or from ourselves: it is a relationship. And life in its totality is a relationship with him who is the source of life. If we are in relation with him who does not die, who is Life itself and Love itself, then we are in life. Then we "live" – Pope Benedict XVI, Encyclical on Hope, November 30, 2007.

POPE FRANCIS QUOTE

This feast makes us rediscover the gift and beauty of being a nation of baptized, that is, sinners saved by the grace of Christ, who have really entered, through the Holy Spirit, in the filial relationship of Jesus, with the Father, and welcomed into the bosom of Mother Church, in such a fraternity that knows no boundaries and barriers.

May the Virgin Mary help all Christians to preserve an increasingly lively awareness and appreciation of our baptism and to follow faithfully the path opened by this sacrament of our rebirth.

Awaken in every heart reverence for the work of your hands and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

PRAYER EBBS AND FLOWS

Prayer has a huge ebb and flow. When we try to pray, sometimes we walk on water and sometimes we sink like a stone. Sometimes we have a deep sense of God's reality and sometimes we can't even imagine that God exists. Sometimes we have deep feelings about God's goodness and love, and sometimes we feel only boredom and distraction. Sometimes our eyes fill with tears and we wish we could stay in our prayer-place forever, and sometimes our eyes wander furtively to our wristwatches to see how much time we still need to spend in prayer.

Sunday's Reflections

THE BATH OF REBIRTH

The baptism of Jesus was not the same as our baptism is. Our baptism incorporates us into the Body of Christ and forgives our sin. It would not make sense for Jesus to have that kind of baptism.

Instead, his baptism began his career as a preacher and miracle-worker, and it provided an opportunity for God to reveal that this was the beloved Son. Just as the magi discovered when they visited Jesus as an infant, and just as the wedding guests at Cana discovered when Jesus turned water into wine, so the baptism of Jesus announced to those gathered that the Messiah had come.

The baptism of Jesus differed from ours, but it certainly inspired ours. At the end of his life Jesus commanded his disciples to baptize all nations. So we begin our ministry in Christ with the sign that began his.

Paul's Letter to Titus recalls this connection. "God saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us through Jesus Christ our savior." Our baptism—the "bath of rebirth"—brought us renewal by the Holy Spirit.

As we conclude the church's celebration of Christmas and return to work, to school, and to life as usual, we enter the Ordinary Time of the liturgical year. But life is never ordinary for those who are led by the Holy Spirit, our gift at baptism.
