WHERE ARE YOU IN GOD'S STORY?

The God of the heavens and the earth wants you too to remember who it is that he says that you are. Very likely, I do not know your story. Yours may read a lot like mine, or it may be altogether different. But I do know this: wherever you are in that story, God desires to draw near to you and remind you who you are. In the midst of your cracks and suffering and hard places and pain, he has a love letter to offer you.

Sunday's Reflections

Romans 10:8-13

HEART AND MOUTH

On the First Sunday of Lent the catechumens of the church gather at the cathedral for the rite of election. Their godparents testify that the catechumens have prepared for baptism, and the bishop announces that the church chooses them ("elects" them) for the Easter sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and eucharist. The catechumens set an example of faith at the beginning of Lent. Throughout this season we all rely in faith on the forgiveness of Christ. He who chose us will forgive us and redirect our steps. All it takes from us is faith.

Paul's Letter to the Romans says, "If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." The belief we hold in our hearts rises up to our lips. In what we do and say, we demonstrate to all around us what we believe: that Jesus is Lord.

The catechumens will make that belief explicit at the Easter Vigil. Three times they will be asked, "Do you believe?" And three times they will answer, "I do." Then all of us will be asked the same—three times, "Do you believe?" And three times we will answer, "I do." Between now and then we spend our days in repentance and prayer, anxious for any chance to proclaim with our lips the faith in our hearts: Jesus is Lord.
