Reflexiones del domingo
Galatas 5: 1, 13-18
MORDEDURAS Y DEVOURING

Somos duros con nuestros funcionarios electos. No hacen lo suficiente con el desempleo. No han mejorado la seguridad de nuestras calles. No han hecho lo suficiente para la educación. Los precios del gas son demasiado altos. Es fácil echarle la culpa a alguien que tiene una oficina. Pero a menudo olvidamos una cosa. Los ponemos allí.

A lo largo de una temporada de campaña, los candidatos apelan a nuestro voto. Su enfoque no siempre es complementario. Arrojan lodo porque saben que apreciamos a un candidato que es duro. Nos prometen más dinero en nuestros bolsillos porque saben que no queremos perder nada con las personas que no lo merecen. En el peor de los casos, si los sorprenden mintiendo, robando y aprovechando una posición de autoridad, son culpables de un crimen al que todos contribuimos: el crimen de codicia, egoísmo y materialismo que ha manchado el carácter de nuestra sociedad.

Con demasiada frecuencia vivimos por la carne, no por el Espíritu. San Pablo negaría con la cabeza. "Vive por el Espíritu", dice. "La carne tiene deseos contra el Espíritu, y el Espíritu contra la carne". Muchos de nosotros nos mordemos y nos devoramos unos a otros. Para Pablo, la ley cristiana no se resume en esto: "El que muere con más juguetes gana". Pero en esto: "Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo".

Tendremos una mejor calidad de gobierno, cuando compartamos mejores valores entre nosotros.

Sunday's Reflections
Galatians 5:1, 13-18
BITING AND DEVOURING

We are hard on our elected officials. They do not do enough about unemployment. They have not improved the safety of our streets. They have not done enough for education. Gas prices are too high. It is easy to put the blame on someone who holds an office. But we often forget one thing. We put them there.

Throughout a campaign season, candidates appeal for our vote. Their approach is not always complimentary. They sling mud because they know we appreciate a candidate who is tough. They promise us more money in our pockets because they know we do not want to lose any to people who do not deserve it. In the worst cases, if they are caught lying, stealing, and taking advantage of a position of authority, they are guilty of a crime to which we all contributed: the crime of greed, selfishness, and materialism that has stained the character of our society.

All too often we live by the flesh, not by the Spirit. St. Paul would shake his head. "Live by the Spirit," he says. "The flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh." Too many of us bite and devour one another. For Paul, the Christian law is not summed up in this: "Whoever dies with the most toys wins." But in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

We will have a better quality of government, when we share better values among ourselves.
