Reflexiones del domingo
2 Timoteo 2:8-13
DESLIZÁNDOSE EN UN AGUJERO

Al final de un arduo día de trabajo, al comienzo de un mes difícil, en medio de una temporada difícil, algunas personas tienen ganas de renunciar. Pero ellos no pueden. Tienen que seguir trabajando, incluso ante el fracaso. Como los remeros que se deslizan río abajo cuando se esfuerzan por remar, no ven progreso. Pero si se detienen, solo empeorará. A menudo es la deuda la que agota nuestra energía. Nos metemos más en problemas, y parece que no hay salida.

La regla número uno para salir de un hoyo es simple: dejar de cavar.

Incluso en la vida cristiana todos pasamos por tiempos de desesperación. Nuestra oración ya no parece lo que solía ser. No somos tan fieles a la iglesia como quisiéramos. Las fiestas y las estaciones pasan sin reconocimiento. La amabilidad con un vecino parece poco atractiva

Algunas personas dejan que su fe se deslice hacia un agujero que parece insondable. No saben que hacer

La Segunda Carta de Timoteo sabe qué hacer: "Recuerda a Jesucristo, resucitado de entre los muertos, un descendiente de David". Jesús era el Hijo de Dios, pero también era humano, un descendiente de David. Él era humano como nosotros. Y fue resucitado de la muerte.

Recuerda eso. "Si hemos muerto con él, también viviremos con él; si perseveramos, también reinaremos con él". Él permanece fiel a nosotros si le abrimos nuestros corazones y recordamos.

Sunday's Reflections
2 Timothy 2:8-13
GLIDING INTO A HOLE

At the end of a hard day's work, at the beginning of a tough month, in the middle of a difficult season—some people feel like quitting. But they cannot. They must keep on working, even in the face of failure. Like rowers slipping downstream when they strive to paddle up, they see no progress. But if they stop, it only gets worse. Often it is debt that saps our energy. We get deeper into trouble, and there seems no way out.

Rule number one for getting out of a hole is simple: Quit digging.

Even in the Christian life we all go through times of despair. Our prayer does not seem what it used to be. We are not as faithful at attending church as we would like. The feasts and seasons drift by without acknowledgment. Kindness to a neighbor seems unappealing.

Some people let their faith glide into a hole that seems unfathomable. They do not know what to do.

The Second Letter of Timothy knows what to do: "Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David." Jesus was the Son of God, but he was also human, a descendant of David. He was human like us. And he was raised from the dead.

Remember that. "If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him." He remains faithful to us if we open our hearts to him and remember.
