Reflexiones del domingo
Romanos 8:26-27
REZANDO DURO

Hay muchas formas de rezar. Cuando estamos solos, podemos orar en silencio, o meditar en los versículos de la Biblia, o rezar el rosario, o leer un libro de oraciones. Cuando estamos con otros, podemos rezar antes de una comida, inclinar la cabeza durante una invocación o unirnos a la misa.

La oración de algún día parece menos satisfactoria. Es difícil concentrarse. Estamos distraídos por nuestro entorno o por los asuntos del día. Las palabras no tienen mucho sentido. O simplemente estamos muy cansados.

Esos días problemáticos vienen, pero hay otros días en que la oración funciona. Nos sentimos atraídos a la presencia de Dios. Las canciones realmente elogian. Nuestras necesidades nos impulsan a invocar a Dios más directamente. La fe de los demás nos inspira. Podemos sentirnos desanimados por una oración menor una vez que hemos experimentado toda esa oración podría ser.

Incluso cuando no podemos rezar de la manera que deseamos; Nuestra oración todavía agrada a Dios. Cuando haces algo por alguien que amas, es posible que no siempre tengas las palabras correctas y que no siempre selecciones el regalo perfecto, pero la persona amada sabe lo que hay en tu corazón.

San Pablo les dice a los romanos: "El Espíritu viene en ayuda de nuestra debilidad; porque no sabemos rezar como deberíamos". El Espíritu intercede por nosotros con gemidos inexpressables.

Si no tenemos ganas de orar, todo lo que tenemos que hacer es intentarlo. El Espíritu lo tomará desde allí.

Sunday's Reflections
Romans 8:26-27
PRAYING HARD

There are many ways to pray. When alone, we might pray in silence, or meditate on verses from the Bible, or say the rosary, or read from a prayer book. When with others, we may pray before a meal, bow our heads during an invocation, or join in the Mass.

On some day's prayer seems less satisfying. It is hard to concentrate. We are distracted by our surroundings or by the affairs of the day. The words do not make much sense. Or we are just too tired.

Those troublesome days come, but there are other days when prayer works. We feel drawn into the presence of God. The songs truly give praise. Our needs prompt us to call upon God more directly. The faith of others inspires us. We may feel discouraged by a lesser prayer once we have experienced all that prayer could be.

Even when we cannot pray the way we wish; our prayer still pleases God. When you do something for someone you love, you may not always have the right words, and you may not always select the perfect gift, but the beloved knows what is in your heart.

St. Paul tells the Romans, "The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought." The Spirit intercedes for us with inexpressible groanings.

If we do not feel like prayer, all we have to do is try. The Spirit will take it from there.
