ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion during a televised Mass.

Reflexiones del domingo
Romanos 8:26-30
BUENA EN LA FE

Si eres bueno en lo que haces para vivir, conoces la alegría de ser la persona adecuada para el trabajo correcto. A veces nos convertimos en la tarea que se nos ha encomendado. Otras veces parece que hemos estado predestinados para ello todo el tiempo. De alguna manera, las habilidades que poseemos y las experiencias que hemos tenido nos llevaron a la persona que somos y al trabajo que hacemos.

A lo largo de nuestras vidas mejoramos en ser cristianos. Desarrollamos habilidades para la oración, el amor, el servicio y la comprensión. Los usamos para agradar a Dios y construir la comunidad. También experimentamos las alegrías y las profundidades de la vida espiritual. Los éxitos y pérdidas de la vida han refinado nuestra imagen de Dios y de la iglesia, haciéndonos más maduros en la fe.

San Pablo les dice a los romanos que Dios los conoció hace mucho tiempo y los predestinó para conformarse a la imagen del Hijo, "para que él sea el primogénito entre muchos hermanos y hermanas".

En Dios estamos predestinados, llamados, justificados y glorificados. Dios nos conoció desde el principio, nos llamó al servicio, nos justificó para la salvación y nos glorificó en la vida eterna. A medida que avanzamos por la vida, nos damos cuenta de que Dios sabía algunas cosas sobre nosotros mucho antes que nosotros. Dios sabía qué herramientas necesitaríamos para el lugar y el tiempo en que vivimos. Tenemos la esperanza de que Dios todavía está trabajando con nosotros y nos ayudará con los desafíos que nos esperan. La recompensa de la gloria espera a aquellos que son buenos en la tarea de la fe.

Sunday's Reflections
Romans 8:28-30
GOOD AT FAITH

If you are good at what you do for a living, you know the joy of being the right person for the right job. Sometimes we grow into the task we have been given. Other times it seems as though we have been predestined for it all along. Somehow the skills we possess and the experiences we have had all led up to the person we are and the job we do.

Throughout our lives we get better at being Christian. We develop skills for prayer, love, service, and understanding. We use them to please God and build up the community. We also experience the joys and depths of the spiritual life. Life's successes and losses have refined our image of God and the church, making us more mature in faith.

St. Paul tells the Romans that God knew them long ago and predestined them to be conformed to the Son's image, "so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters."

In God we are predestined, called, justified, and glorified. God knew us from the beginning, called us into service, justified us for salvation, and glorified us in eternal life. As we journey through life, we realize that God knew some things about us long before we did. God knew what tools we would need for the place and time we live. We have hope that God is still working with us and will help us with whatever challenges lie ahead. The reward of glory awaits those who are good at the task of faith.
