PER BISHOP SIS

Due to the COVID pandemic, Catholics in the Diocese of San Angelo are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday's and holy days of obligation until further notice.

PER BISHOP SIS

We have received new protocols from Bishop Sis. These continue to include social distancing of 6 feet, wearing of masks, over the nose and mouth and if you are feeling any symptoms please stay home and seek medical attention.

All Communion ministers, including clergy, must use a face mask or cloth face covering over the nose and mouth. All choir members and musicians are also required to follow the rules of social distancing and all are expected to wear face masks or cloth face coverings over the nose and mouth throughout the Mass, including when singing or playing musical instruments.

Baptisms are subject to the same social distancing, face mask and spacing requirements as Mass in the Church. Quinceaneras and weddings are subject to the same social distancing, face masks, and spacing requirements as other Masses in the Church. Exercise caution and avoid large gatherings. Before scheduling a Quinceanera or wedding, please wait until a phase when sufficient crowds are allowed inside the church to accommodate the group safely.

Funerals are subject to the same social distancing, face mask and spacing requirements as other Masses in the Church. We should still avoid large gatherings and exercise caution.

All attendees over the age of 2 are to wear face masks or cloth face coverings (over the nose and mouth).

Those who are age 65 or older, those of any age with serious underlying medical conditions, and those who are sick, are encouraged to stay home and watch a livestream Mass.

Anyone attending Mass are to be screened before coming into the building. Their temperature is to be checked with the use of a medical-type noncontact infrared thermometer. They are to be sent home if they have any of the signs or symptoms of possible COVID-19.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service.
Amen.

Reflexiones del domingo

1 Corintios 9:16-19, 22-23

USAR LOS DONES DADOS POR DIOS

Las horas de voluntariado en las parroquias no pueden contarse. Los feligreses sirven en el ministerio litúrgico, preparan comida, enseñan, visitan a los enfermos, entrenan a los jóvenes, y sigue y sigue. La mayoría de las personas se ofrecen como voluntarios porque disfrutan trabajar con otros que comparten su fe y les gusta devolverle a Dios algo que han recibido.

Cada regalo que Dios da también viene con el deseo de usarlo, como si Dios empaquetara nuestros regalos con botones de inicio. Tener dones es una cosa, pero usarlos es otra. Si no usamos el don que tenemos, lo sentimos carcomiendo dentro de nosotros. Quiere salir.

El apóstol Pablo escribe sobre su propia vocación de esta manera. El es un predicador. La gente lo ha elogiado por su habilidad, pero Pablo dice: "Si predico el evangelio, esto no es motivo para que me gloríe, porque se me ha impuesto una obligación, y ¡ay de mí si no lo predico!" Pablo sintió el evangelio como un río embravecido dentro de él. Tuvo que dejarlo salir. De lo contrario, sufriría personalmente.

Dios nos ha dado nuestros dones para que podamos usarlos. No tenemos ninguna razón para jactarnos de nuestros dones, nos los dieron. Pero tenemos motivos para usarlos. Cumplirán el propósito para el cual Dios los hizo, y todos llegarán a conocer la grandeza de nuestro Dios.

Sunday's Reflections

1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

USING GOD-GIVEN GIFTS

The hours of volunteering at parishes cannot be numbered. Parishioners serve in liturgical ministry, they prepare food, they teach, they visit the sick, they coach the young—it goes on and on. Most people volunteer because they enjoy working with others who share their faith, and they like giving back to God something they have received.

Every gift God gives also comes with a desire to use it—as if God packaged our gifts with start buttons. Having gifts is one thing but using them is something else. If we do not use the gift we have, we feel it eating away within us. It wants to come out.

The apostle Paul writes about his own vocation this way. He is a preacher. People have praised him for his ability, but Paul says, "If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it!" Paul felt the gospel like a raging river within him. He had to let it out. Otherwise, he would personally suffer.

God has given us our gifts that we might use them. We have no reason to boast of our gifts—they were given to us. But we do have reason to use them. They will fulfill the purpose for which God made them, and all will come to know the greatness of our God.
