St. Vincent de Paul Update

Although we have all been subject to a lockdown since mid-March, your Sts. Peter & Paul Conference of St. Vincent de Paul has continued unabated in serving those in need. With a reduced staff and with restrictive procedures in place, we have continued to provide aid with food, transportation, rent, utilities, furniture and other basic needs. Since March we have provided the following assistance:

- Visits made - 91
- Family members helped - 274
- Money we spent - $11,184
- In-kind - $1850
- TEP Grant - $500

During this pandemic, we have been able to continue service to the poor through the generous contributions of our parishioners at Sts. Peter & Paul. We ask for your continued support through prayers and through your contributions this upcoming Sunday, 30 August, when the 5th Sunday second collection proceeds go directly to St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you, and may God continue to richly bless you.

A Litany to Pray Frequently in Time of Health Pandemic. This may be prayed individually or in alternation with others.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
 Christ have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
 Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
 Christ, hear us. Christ, hear us.
 Christ, graciously hear us. Christ, graciously hear us.
 O God the Father, Creator of heaven and earth,
 have mercy on us.
 O God the Son, Redeemer of the world,
 have mercy on us.
 O God the Holy Spirit, Sanctifier of the faithful,
 have mercy on us.
 O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, one God,
 have mercy on us.
 From all evil, Lord, deliver us, we pray.
 From every sin, Lord, deliver us, we pray.
 From everlasting death, Lord, deliver us, we pray.
 By your Incarnation, Lord, deliver us, we pray.
 By your Death and Resurrection, Lord, deliver us,
 we pray.
 By the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Lord, deliver us,
 we pray.
 Holy Mary, pray for us. Holy Mother of God, pray for us.
 Mother of the Church, pray for us. Mother of Christians, pray for us. Mother of the human family, pray for us.
 Refuge of sinners, pray for us. Comforter of the afflicted, pray for us. Consolation of the lonely, pray for us.
 Solace of the fearful, pray for us. Hope of the poor, pray for us. Health of the sick, pray for us. Companion of the dying, pray for us. Strength of caregivers, pray for us.
 Help of Christians, pray for us.
 Queen of angels, pray for us. Queen of apostles, pray for us. Queen of martyrs, pray for us. Queen of virgins, pray for us. Queen of all saints, pray for us.
 Queen of Heaven, pray for us.
 Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
 spare us, O Lord.
 Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
 graciously hear us, O Lord.
 Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us.
 Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.
 In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
 and of the Holy Spirit.
 Amen.

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
AWE AND PRAISE

In today's passage from Romans, Paul concludes his complex reflections on the Jewish people, the emerging Gentile churches, and God's work among them. Paul has struggled to understand the responses of both the Jewish and Gentile communities, with their mix of acceptance and rejection of Jesus. He warns the Roman church to avoid any sense of superiority over Jews or non-Christian Gentiles, for everyone is in need of God's mercy. Paul acknowledges the limits of his understanding, and gives way to prayers of awe and praise. He concludes by marveling at the limitless mercy of God, whose designs are ultimately mysterious.

Sometimes our own prayer can be like that of Paul. In conversation with God, we try to make sense of life, especially its difficulties. The full truth of what's going on in our lives or in our world eludes us, and so we work humbly with the truth that we can understand. If we believe our mysterious God is indeed trustworthy, we can open our hearts in praise, and allow God to shape our lives.

In May, we removed the missals from the pews so multiple people would not be handling the same books. It is a shame for them to go to waste while sitting in a closet. We've taken them out of their book covers and would like to make them available for you to own your own copy to bring with you to Mass. We are simply asking for a donation of $2.00 for a new copy. This amount is to help the reduction in income the church is experiencing due to the COVID-19 virus. If you are interested in purchasing one please call the parish office at (520) 327-6015.

THANK YOU!

A remarkable number of parishioners have started giving to Ss. Peter & Paul online, through their bank's "bill pay," and by mailing their envelopes. If you have questions about our website or how you can set up your bank's auto pay, please call James Lemas at the office 327-6015.

Your support keeps the parish mission alive. Thank you!
