St. Vincent de Paul Second Collection

During this pandemic, we have been able to continue service to the poor through the generous contributions of our parishioners at Sts. Peter & Paul. We ask for your continued support through prayers and through your contributions this Sunday, when the second collection proceeds go directly to St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you, and may God continue to richly bless you.

A NOTE FROM YOUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

MISSALS FOR PERSONAL USE

It is good to be celebrating public Masses. We will move past “Phase 1 Reopening” when the pandemic conditions permit. No one can predict that date. Yet, I am predicting that the 2020 missalettes are not going to return to the pew pockets. The books were removed from the pews to limit sharing the virus by limiting the shared handling of objects.

Well, they are doing no good in a closet. I think it is safe for parishioners to use and to keep a personal copy. So, this week, you may pick up a copy while supplies last. Each Sunday, carry it with you to church and take it home. I hope this helps our worship.

There is no donation box next to the books, but you might consider putting a little extra in the collection.

VACATION

September is my annual vacation month. It is not the year for traveling, so I am going to take a break close to home. I’ll be back October 1.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Patrick M. Crino

THANK YOU!

A remarkable number of parishioners have started giving to Ss. Peter & Paul online, through their bank’s “bill pay,” and by mailing their envelopes. If you have questions about our website or how you can set up your bank’s auto pay, please call James Lemas at the office 327-6015.

Your support keeps the parish mission alive. Thank you!

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are invited to reflect on the path of discipleship offered by Jesus in our readings today. Jesus, now seen by the disciples as Messiah and Christ, begins to describe most fully what this means: he will not march into Jerusalem filled with God’s power like a conquering general. His path is like that of Jeremiah; he will be rejected and mocked. His path is like that described by Paul, offering his body as a living sacrifice. Jesus summons his followers down the same path of death and resurrection, to live the radical paradox that “whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” Loving and trusting God will entail self-surrender, leading us to joy in service to others. We will learn to let go of what we desire and what we think we need, trusting God to provide what we truly need.

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT (540-604)

September 3

GREGORY the GREAT Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, Gregorian chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory’s legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory’s administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and advisor, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the church’s material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promotor of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the “Gregorian Canon” (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated “the Great,” a fitting epitaph.
