TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Galatians 5:16-25.

Gospel — As the Father has sent me, so I send you: Receive the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23) or John 15:26-27; 16:12-15.

Pentecost Sunday

Come, Holy Spirit! Today we celebrate Pentecost, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the first disciples and on all who are baptized. We also commemorate the birth of the Church. Before Pentecost, the disciples remained hidden and uncertain; at Pentecost, those who were gathered were filled with the Spirit and proclaimed the wonders of the Good News of Christ to all. The Spirit guides us to the truth of Christ's love and mercy and strengthens us to live as disciples. Without the Holy Spirit, we would perish; with the Spirit, we have life to the full. Relying on the Spirit, we are given the grace to turn away from the many temptations that we face each day and prefer instead what is good and holy. Come, Holy Spirit, come!

WE'VE GOT THE POWER! Jesus never meant for us to be alone! After He gave us our mission: “Go out into the world and bring the GOOD NEWS of our SALVATION!”, He made sure we are prepared..... and we got it WITH A BANG!

The Holy Spirit comes, not only upon the Apostles, but everyone else who believes in Him and is willing to take on the mission. The power to pursue, complete and succeed in our undertaking as workers for the Lord is simply there for the taking. I, for one, simply throw myself at the shadow of the Holy Spirit.

In 2003, I came to the United States with the hope of being formed to the priesthood of Jesus Christ and ministering to God’s people (read: EVERYONE). I remember how scary it was to come and live here – so different, so new and so far from my family! However, I look back and can testify that it was only through the strength that I received from the Holy Spirit that allowed me to continue with the work at hand. Best of all, I find that I am enjoying every moment of my priesthood – challenges and all!

By the way, on Monday, May 24, I am celebrating 13 years of priesthood and back to where I first started – Ss. Peter and Paul! Where did all those years go?

Congratulations to our GRADUATES! Last Monday, I had a few moments with our 8th graders who graduated on Wednesday. I congratulated them but with the reminder that the one that gets equal share are their parents and grandparents. While they get the honors, I believe that it is on this day that they should acknowledge the “blood, sweat and tears” of those who have made it possible for them to receive an excellent primary school education – their families, teachers and benefactors of the scholarships that made it possible.

Over and above the guidance of their families to which I am so grateful, I would like to acknowledge the HUGE contribution of Mrs. Gracie Quiroz-Marum and her indefatigable team at the Catholic Tuition Support Organization (CTSO) for their untiring work in providing the much needed financial support to so many students. Likewise, there are also numerous other scholarship funds that have been made available to us.

My personal gratitude goes to our Ss. Peter and Paul School Administration and Teachers headed by Mrs. Charlene Roll, Principal, and Mrs. Marty Ratliff, Vice Principal. They are my HEROINES!

THANK YOU, PIMA COUNTY HEALTH! Today, May 23, we have the Corona Virus Vaccination Drive at Gramer Hall from 8am to 2:30PM. We would like to express our gratitude to them for offering the public the vaccine that would assist us towards the eradication of the virus that has caused so much anguish to so many. To those who are able to receive the vaccine, please consider receiving it and be a part of the solution. Once again, THANK YOU PIMA COUNTY HEALTH!

Pentecost Sequence: Veni, Sancte Spiritus

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home Shed a ray of light divine! Come, Father of the poor!
 Come, source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best; You, the soul’s most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below; In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat;
 Solace in the midst of woe. O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of yours, And our inmost being fill! Where you are not, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought, Nothing free from taint of ill. Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away: Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. On the faithful, who adore And confess you, evermore In your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue’s sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia.
