IN THE SPOTLIGHT

PLANT A SEED IN 2016!

Tips to Help Foster Vocations

- Talk positively and enthusiastically about what priests and religious do.
- Make scripture reading and prayer a part of your family’s decision process.
- Help young people think about ways as baptized Christians they can care for and help people.
- Encourage your children and/or grandchildren to volunteer their time and talent as altar servers.
- Speak about your life as a vocation; examine your gifts and virtues.
- Invite priests and religious to visit as friends in your home.
- Ask other young friends what they are thinking about for life choices.
- Take part in parish activities together as a family.
- Give children and/or grandchildren opportunities to lead prayer and pray in their own words from their heart.
- Ask young adults to look at church related vocations and ministries.
- Provide opportunities for them to read about those who have responded to God’s call.
