It was a dark and stormy night on August 7 when we all traveled through a deluge of rain to St Benedict’s for the Serra Club of Tulsa’s Annual Seminarian Dinner.

After Mass, which was celebrated by Bishop Konderla, the rain stopped and the music started. Serrans and their guests followed the sounds of the “Strings Plus One” quintet into the beautifully decorated McGuire Hall, where a delicious catered dinner awaited.

In addition to food and fellowship, the seminarians introduced their family members during the dinner.

Father Bryan Brooks, pastor of St. Benedict’s, was presented with the official program of the recent Serra Club International Convention honoring him and other Serra Club chaplains.

Father Mike Pratt, Director of Vocation for the Diocese, led a standing ovation in appreciation of Theresa Witcher for her years of service in the Vocations Office.

Thanks to all the hard working Serrans and St. Benedict’s Parish for making this a memorable evening!
