2014 SPEAKERS

MAURA BYRNE

From Victim to Survivor: Courage and the True meaning of Beauty
Maura shares her powerful story of hope and healing. She has been an inspiring presence on social media since 2011 through her ministry, Made In His Image, reaching out to victims and survivors of abuse and women suffering from eating disorders. For more information about Maura, go to www.madeinhisimage.org.

TOM PETERSON

Our World Needs Catholic Heroes
A presentation on the New Evangelization, featuring humor, stories, helpful tools to bring loved ones home to the Church, and a call to action for all baptized Catholics to help bring Jesus to a world in need. Learn more about Tom at www.virtuemedia.org.

PAT GOHN

Blessed, Beautiful and Bodacious
Pat Gohn has a message for women: you are blessed, beautiful, and bodacious. As she shares her own discoveries found in scripture, Church wisdom, and especially the contemporary writings of Blessed John Paul II on the feminine genius, Gohn suggests that a woman's blessed dignity, paired with the beautiful gifts of her womanhood—receptivity, generosity, sensitivity and maternity—equals a most excellent and bodacious mission. Learn more about Pat at www.patgohn.net.

JAMIE BILLER

The Shepherd Cannot Run: The Life of Fr. Stanley Rother and His Gift to Our Faith
Catholic music artist Jamie Biller beautifully conveys through stories and songs the life of Fr. Stanley Rother. Fr. Rother, a native Oklahoman, was a humble and heroic priest, giving his own life spiritually and physically for his parishioners in Santiago Atitlán, Guatemala. His cause for canonization is currently being considered by Vatican officials. To honor Fr. Rother, Jamie wrote a song inspired by his own words, "The Shepherd Cannot Run", hoping to bring about awareness and prayer for his cause. Experience the path to sainthood through Fr. Rother's extraordinary acts that went beyond pastoral care and love for the people he served in this musical tribute. For more information about Jamie, go to www.jamiebiller.com.

MAURA BYRNE

Eating Disorder: It's Not About Food
Eating disorders are so common in America that 1 or 2 out of every 100 students will struggle with one. Each year, thousands of teens develop eating disorders, or problems with weight, eating, or body image. Maura shares her story, her struggle and her recovery.

LORRYN MCGARRY

You Go, Girl!: The Power of Femininity
Once again speaking in the youth session, Lorryn is tackling another deep-seeded topic for today's Catholic young women: how to accept ourselves as the Beauty God created us to be. Constantly faced with the pressure to live up to air-brushed, digitally altered images of the "perfect woman" can leave many feeling inadequate, dejected, and unlovable. Relying on Church teaching and sacred scripture, Lorryn will use humor, real world examples and concrete steps to illustrate how to be a lady after God's own heart. To contact Lorryn, email lorryn.kathryn@yahoo.com.

For registration and more information, call 405-396-6292, email ocwc@OCWConference.com or visit the conference web site at www.OCWConference.com.

We support the Sanctuary Women's Development Center, a service of Catholic Charities that provides resources and support for low income and homeless women and children. At the conference we will be accepting donations of:

- Travel Size Soaps and Shampoo
- Personal Hygiene products
- Nutritious snacks
- Baby supplies
- Gift Cards for gas and groceries
