Holy Saint Joseph, guardian of Jesus, husband of the Blessed Mother and patron of the Catholic Church, we pray to you for guidance this "Year of Saint Joseph" proclaimed by Pope Francis.

You have shown us by your loving ways, the value of work and the joys of fatherhood. By teaching God's Son to do the will of His Father you have given us the path to do the same. By your example, you have encouraged us to accept others as they are, without exception.

To you Saint Joseph, our Heavenly Father entrusted his only Son, Jesus Christ to your tender care and upbringing. In you, our Blessed Mother Mary placed her love and trust. Through your mentoring, Jesus became man.

We praise you and ask of you to defend us and our loved ones from every evil and guide us with your grace and mercy. Amen.

We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ. (2 Corinthians 5:10)

The thought of appearing before the judgment seat of Christ at the end of our lives is, at best, unsettling. That's because we will receive recompense for what we have done, "whether good or evil" (2 Corinthians 5:10). We know the many times we have fallen short. So how can we have any hope that Jesus will welcome us into his heavenly kingdom?

First, we can remember that Jesus himself will be our judge. On the cross, he promised the criminal beside him, "Today you will be with me in Paradise" (Luke 23:43). He refused to condemn the woman caught in adultery (John 8:10-11). He welcomed tax collectors into his kingdom, including Matthew, who became one of the Twelve and a saint (Matthew 9:9-13). These Gospel stories give us reason to believe that he will treat us with mercy as well.

Second, while we may find it painful to remember some of our past sins and misdeeds, Jesus views our lives very differently. He won't see only our sins; he'll also see our good deeds – even the ones we weren't aware of. You may be surprised by the effects that your love has had on the people around you!

Finally, while we're still here on earth, we shouldn't burden ourselves worrying about whether we have done enough good works to earn a spot in heaven. Jesus has already saved us through his "one righteous act" – the shedding of his blood on the cross (Romans 5:18). Our good works are the way in which we respond to the love that God has already shown us.

So today, place any fears you might have about Jesus' judgement into his loving, merciful hands. Remember that each day is a fresh start to "aspire to please" him in all things (2 Corinthians 5:9). Jesus is a judge, yes, but the most kind and merciful judge you will ever encounter!

"Jesus, I thank you for the mercy you show me each day."
