Mission Appeal – July 24th & 25th

Catholics have extended their love and generosity to the missions of the world through the Propagation of Faith, the Church's central source of mission support.

This year, the missionary priest from the Philippines, Rev. Dexter Jay M. Nebrida of the Disciples of Mary will be sharing his missionary experience among the young people in the Philippines.

We would like to invite you to take part in his mission apostolate through your prayers and donations as he reaches out to so many youth who are confronted with the serious challenges of addiction, materialism, violence, and abuse.

What a great opportunity we will have the weekend of July 24th & 25th to respond to our baptismal call to take part in our Church's missionary challenge . . .and to receive the full graces of the Eucharist offered for us by this missionary priest.

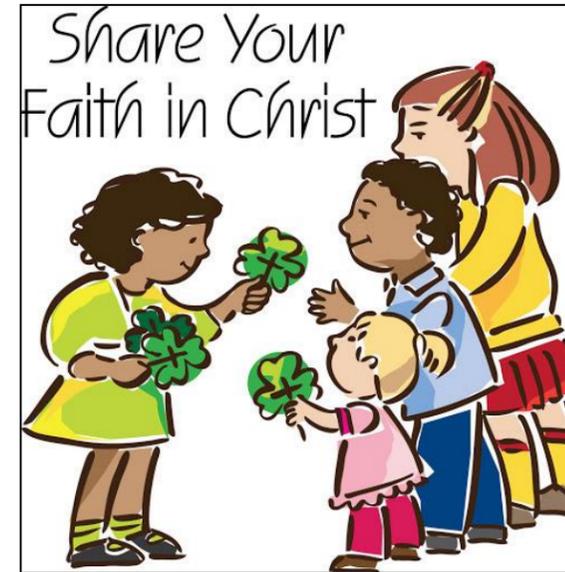

Please be as generous as possible in responding to our Lord's call for us to take part in His mission to all people. (Make checks payable to St. Benedict Parish & in the memo line: Disciples of Mary)

Vocation Chalice Program

Don't forget to sign up! Your family would take home and use the chalice as a focal point for daily prayer that week to promote and support religious vocations. A manual which includes a suggested prayer schedule, examples of prayer & information regarding vocations is also provided.

(The sign-up sheet is on the board in the narthex)

The Book of Amos marks a turing point. From the time of King Saul, prophets had gathered in guilds and were seen as employees of the king. But Amos says he does not come from a "company of prophets" (Amos 7:14). He was a farmer when God called him. From then on, prophets who followed Amos---Isaiah, Jeremiah, Exekiel, and the others---were called directly by God. They wanted to be clear that they too were not "professional" prophets.

Why is this important? Because many career prophets in the time of Amos softened their message to win the king's favor. Or they took payment for their services. That's why the priest Amaziah told Amos that he should earn his bread by prophesying elsewhere. He certainly wasn't about to pay a prophet who condemned the king! But Amos didn't have competing loyalties. God had given Amos his message, and God expected him to deliver it.

Fast-forward to today's Gospel reading, where Jesus sends out the Twelve to preach and to heal. They certainly weren't in it for the money or to win Herod's approval. God had called them, and that was enough. So when they returned to Jesus after their journeys, they were excited, not because they had made any money, but because they had seen the power of Jesus' word.

By virtue of your baptism, you too are called by God to be a prophet. That simply means that you are called to spread your faith to the best of your ability.

You do this by sharing what God has done in your life, by caring for the needy, and by following Church teachings even when it's inconvenient or difficult. It won't make you rich. It might not make you popular. But there's nothing like seeing God work through something you say or do. God is still speaking to his people. And he's calling you to help them hear his voice.

"Lord help me hear and speak your word!"
