

SUMMER SACRED MUSIC WORKSHOP II

Friday & Saturday, July 22 – 23, 2016 in Chattanooga

This one-and-a-half day workshop is an invitation to choirs and musicians of all levels, as well as clergy, to experience and learn the sacred music tradition of the Catholic Church

- ❖ Learn to sing Gregorian chant (or further develop your chanting skills), under the direction of Dr. Jennifer Donelson and other experienced directors
- ❖ Gain the skills to immediately improve your parish music program, guided by the wisdom of the Second Vatican Council
- ❖ Explore repertory options (many of them available at no cost) for the Ordinary Form of the Mass, no matter what your parish or choir situation
- ❖ Study special topics including sacred polyphony, use of the organ, and restoring Catholic tradition in the funeral Mass; a session for clergy will be offered by Father David Carter, rector of the basilica
- ❖ Participate in a solemn Vespers and solemn sung Mass and hear the Basilica's majestic pipe organ in recital by Bruce Ludwick, Jr. and others - plus an "open mic" for choirs and organists

Sign up by June 30 to save! Registration deadline is July 10.

Students qualify for a discount.

To find out more and reserve your spot today, visit:

southeasternsacredmusic.com or call 865-335-0588