*Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.

Dear Families,

I will record a video for you that outlines the following pages and it will be posted on our website. In addition, this resource book will be posted on our website. If you have questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me.

We are very excited to welcome you as you prepare for Confirmation! It is about so much more than all of this paperwork. We will use the preparation program Chosen by Ascension Press to prepare for Confirmation. It was released in January 2014 and is very well written by Chris Stefanick and Ron Bolster. Chris is a leading speaker within the Church because he is on fire with the faith and hopes to ignite the Holy Spirit within the lives of teens. Ron Bolster is the director of the Office of Catechetics at Franciscan University.

Seminarians will help guide you and your teen through this program that will help you and your teen:

- Be called to a personal encounter with Jesus Christ
- Hear the Faith presented in new and unexpected ways
- Be equipped and prepared to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation
- See what sets the Catholic Church apart
- Be inspired to a deep appreciation of the Sacraments
- Learn from the examples of the saints

The program comes with a Student Book and online parent and sponsor resources. Choosing a sponsor is so important. Parents, please pray with your child and ask the Holy Spirit for guidance in selecting a Sponsor who will help build the spiritual inheritance for your family. Please note that the Sponsor must be a practicing Catholic (registered at a Church and has already received Baptism, Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation) who models the commitment to personal prayer, attends Mass every weekend and on Holy Days of Obligation, is at least sixteen years old, and if married, must be validly married in the Catholic Church. Parents cannot be sponsors.

Your teen will also have the opportunity to choose a Confirmation Name. If their baptismal name is that of a recognized Saint of the Catholic Church, they may use their baptismal name or they may select a new name. Regardless, they must prepare a report on the name chosen and it must be a recognized Saint of the Catholic Church. Later in the Resource Book you will find some links to great websites that can help you and your child discern which Saint they might choose to ask to walk with them on this journey.

A trailer for this life-changing Confirmation program can be found at the following link - check it out!

http://www.youtube.com/watch?list=PLqhxRU_hZjzt7vHqbxZHR5O0eJkZITilo&v=WrgySsit-uY

Embrace this journey with your child. It is the most important inheritance you will build for them. May the Holy Spirit enlighten, guide, strengthen, and fill you with His grace as you embark on your journey. You are guaranteed my prayers.

Dolly Elliott Pointner, Director of Faith Formation and Evangelization

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF PARENTS

The Church teaches that parents are the first and foremost catechists of their children. If you feel like you are not equipped for this role, you are not alone - have no fear! We are here to help you. Please call us anytime with your questions. The best things you can do to prepare your child are also some of the best things you can do for yourself. Some suggestions are:

- Attend Mass weekly and on Holy Days of Obligation.
- Go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation frequently.
- Pray with your child.
- Witness to your own faith in your words and actions.
- Guide your student's choice of a Confirmation name and a faith-filled sponsor.
- Encourage and participate in service projects with your son or daughter and help them to understand what their gifts and talents are so that they might commit them to Christian Service.
- Discuss material the catechist/teacher has presented and ask your student if they have questions. If they do and you don't know the answers, be honest about it and ask us to help!
- Have your family join your candidate in praying the Confirmation Novena 9 days before Confirmation.
- Serve as models for your child by being committed Christians.
- Discuss the Sacrament of Confirmation and its meaning.
- Take part in ongoing formation to help renew your faith so you can effectively guide your child.
- Build an atmosphere of trust and understanding.
- Nurture your child in their faith development.

CANDIDATE COMMITMENT

“For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.”

—Jeremiah 29:11

As a baptized Catholic, I am preparing for reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation, by which I will be more perfectly bound to the Catholic Church and enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the Faith as a witness of Christ.

As a candidate for Confirmation, I promise the following:

- I will attend Mass every Sunday and on all Holy Days of Obligation.
- I will approach my Confirmation journey with an open mind and an open heart.
- I will attend and will fully participate in all Chosen sessions and activities.
- I will be respectful of the leaders and facilitators of the program and show appreciation for their time and effort.
- I will show respect to those in my session who are on the journey with me.
- I will receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before my Confirmation.
- I will accept more responsibility in my family, parish, and community by putting my talents and gifts at the service of others.
- I will commit to daily prayer, praying especially for growth in faith, hope, and love.

As I make these promises, I ask God to give me the grace to be open to his plans for my life—plans he reveals to me in prayer, in my talents and aspirations, and in the encouragement of those who know and love me. I place myself in the loving embrace of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in asking for help in fulfilling this commitment.

SERVICE COMMITMENT LETTER

Dear Confirmation Families:

Please spend some time in prayer with your Confirmation Student to help them discern the gifts and talents God has given them and how they might be able to use them to serve others.

Confirmation students will be required to discern how they will serve during Year I and Year II of Confirmation preparation. Please review service suggestions on Page 6 in the Confirmation Resource Book or make an appointment to meet with me for further discussion. I am happy to help discern what gifts God has provided for which He is calling the Confirmation Candidate to share.

It will be the responsibility of the parents to ensure the Confirmation Candidate follows through on the commitments throughout the year. For example, someone may commit to serving at 5 different events. The parent and candidate must be tracking the progress of this commitment.

This completed service commitment form is due to me by October 20, 2020. Once this commitment form is turned in, I will review it for approval. The only items that will not be approved are those that do not support our Catholic values or simply are a half-hearted effort. I will email a copy back to the parents if the service commitment is not sufficient or does not support our Catholic values. An approved hard copy will be returned to the family on November 3, 2020.

The student will be required to stay on track to complete their service and write a service reflection (approximately 250 words) describing the service they performed and how it affected not only those served, but how it affected the student as well. This service reflection will cover all of the service performed on the service commitment and will be due before Confirmation of each year they are in our Confirmation program. This service reflection should be returned with a copy of this letter (that has been pre-approved by me).

The goal is for the focus to be on the quality of the service and how well suited it is for the student. Again, it is the responsibility of the parents to prayerfully help their students learn what their gifts are and how they can use their gifts to help others. For families that find it difficult to discern gifts and are still exploring how God may be calling them, a good guide is for a student to spend a minimum of 10-15 hours per year with service opportunities for which they feel called.

Do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Blessings,

Dolly Elliott Pointner, Director of Faith Formation and Evangelization

The Role of the Confirmation Sponsor

The most important role of a Confirmation sponsor is to walk with the candidate and guide them as they prepare to receive the fullness of the Holy Spirit in this Sacrament of Initiation.

Confirmation sponsors are like spiritual coaches or mentors. They affirm the candidate's strengths and point out ways for the candidate to grow and become better in the practice of faith. The Confirmation Sponsor accompanies the candidate on their faith journey, not just toward Confirmation, but through life. A Confirmation sponsor participates in the candidate's preparation and presents the candidate to the Bishop during the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation. The candidate must choose just one sponsor.

Some of the ways the sponsor helps prepare the candidate:

- ⊕ Meet or talk by phone regularly to pray, share, and discuss the candidate's faith journey.
- ⊕ Attend Mass on occasion with the candidate.
- ⊕ Participate in service with the candidate.
- ⊕ Arrange times to have important talks suggested by the catechist/teacher.
- ⊕ Attend a religious retreat or study the Bible with the student.

How to Choose Your Sponsor

Choosing a sponsor for Confirmation is an important task. Think about choosing someone who is an active, practicing Catholic; someone who is enthusiastic about the Catholic faith; and someone who is easy to talk to and be around. Here are some suggestions to help make the choice:

- ⊕ Think about the qualities a practicing Catholic should exhibit and the qualities that are important to you.
- ⊕ Think about people who are good examples for you.
- ⊕ Ask yourself if one of your godparents would be a good sponsor.
- ⊕ Talk with your parents, or catechists, about who would be a good choice.
- ⊕ Remember, sponsors cannot be your parents. They must be at least sixteen years old. They must be practicing Catholics and have already received Baptism, Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation. If married, they must be validly married in the Catholic Church.
- ⊕ Pray to the Holy Spirit for guidance.
- ⊕ Talk with the person you select and explain why you chose him or her and what their responsibilities will be.

Following is a great video by one of the Chosen presenters,
Father Mike Schmitz, about what constitutes a practicing Catholic.

As soon as you have chosen your Sponsor, please complete a Sponsor Interview {Page 8} and have your Sponsor sign it and answer the Sponsor Eligibility Questions {Page 9}. In addition, make sure you complete your Sponsor's information on the Confirmation Sacramental Registry {Page 10}.

Choosing a Confirmation Name

The candidate is able to choose a Saint's name at Confirmation. If your baptismal name is that of a recognized Saint of the Catholic Church, there is no need to select a new name for Confirmation. While you may choose to select a Confirmation name that differs from your baptismal name, using the baptismal name for Confirmation is preferred because it highlights the relationship that exists between the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation. However, if your baptismal name is not that of a recognized Saint, a new name should be chosen for Confirmation and should be the name of a recognized Saint of the Catholic Church. Names of Saints are chosen to serve as patrons and models for those being confirmed. Regardless of whether or not a baptismal name or another name is chosen, a report on the name {Page 12} needs to be completed. Be sure to list your Confirmation Name on the Confirmation Sacramental Registry {Page 10}.

Importance of Names

Parents often spend many hours thinking about what to name their children. Names are often chosen to honor a relative or a Saint who is revered by the family or culture. While it is customary to use the names of Saints as baptismal names, the Church now permits other names at baptism. However your baptismal name was chosen, it is now a part of your history and identity.

Names are important in our religious tradition as well. In the Old Testament, God promises David: "...and I will make for you a name, like the name of the great ones of the earth" (1 Chronicles 17:8). The prophet Isaiah, speaking in God's name, proclaims to King Cyrus, "it is I, the Lord ... I call you by your name" (Isaiah 45:3-4). In the New Testament, Jesus tells the disciples that their names are written in heaven (see Luke 10:20) and both the Letter to the Philippians (4:3) and the Book of Revelation (21:12-14) refer to names being written in the book of life.

A Confirmation Name

Taking a new name at Confirmation can be symbolic of a new or deeper stage in your faith life. There are several Scripture stories of people whose names changed after they experience a conversion: Abram to Abraham, Jacob to Israel, Simon to Peter, and Saul to Paul. Celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation is an opportunity for you to reflect on how you want to witness to the power of the Holy Spirit in your life. If you choose a name other than your baptismal name, choose the name of a Saint who you admire and whom you want to be your patron. You should choose a patron Saint's name, not because of the attractiveness of the name, but because of the attractiveness of the Christian life that that person led.
