Women For Women

Parishioners of St. John XXIII are going to start a group of women for the support of women. It will be a group for women of all ages and walks of life. The focus of the group will be to discuss topics relevant to women and to develop friendships. The next gathering will be Saturday, November 7th at 9 am in the Paulist Room where we can appropriately social distance. Masks are required for this event. Please RSVP to Jane Ketteringham at 865-850-6934. Please feel free to text or call.

Coats for the Cold

Coats for the Cold is an annual coat drive to collect thousands of coats for those in need in our area. The community is invited to donate used men's, women's and children's coats at any KARM Stores location or any Prestige Cleaners location from Monday, October 19th thru Saturday, November 14th.

There are also many, many ways to volunteer for Coats for the Cold! At all KARM Stores locations, each donated coat must be sorted by gender and size prior to November 9th. Additional help is needed to display them properly from November 9th to December 5th. Please go to www.karm.coats and sign up for the day and time you would like to volunteer.

Check out our website at www.john23rd.org for online giving, alternate worship options, and updated information. If you are not comfortable with online donations, we are still in the office to receive any mailed donations. Thank you for your help and we look forward to seeing you again!

Baby Bottle Drive

The Pregnancy Help Center is an amazing resource for our community and we are pleased to be able to help! Please be sure to pick up a baby bottle this weekend in the lobby. You can also donate online at www.cctn.org/donate and specify Pregnancy Help Center in the description box. Or you can mail a check to us made out to "Pregnancy Help Center" and we will place it in a baby bottle for you!

White Mass Sunday, October 18

A special invitation is extended to all serving in the health care profession to join us in celebrating our annual White Mass on Sunday October 18 to honor and pray for all who serve in the health care profession. As a time honored tradition of the Church, the White Mass represents a special time to invoke the blessing of the Holy Spirit upon those serving in the health care profession, and to reflect upon the Church's teaching not only upon the healing mission of those in the health care profession, but also upon the salvific meaning of human suffering in light of Christ's redemptive suffering. Let us come together, then, to pray as a faith community for those serving in the health care profession who strive to bring Christ's love and healing to the sick and dying.

To Keep All Of Us Safe, Please:

- Wear a mask at all times
- Maintain social distance of 6 feet from those not in your family
- Do not congregate in the lobby or on the sidewalks (you may do so in the grass or the parking lots)
- Do not come to Mass if you are experiencing any illness symptoms (the Bishop has issued a dispensation for Sunday Mass for everyone)

Pandemic Emergency Fund

Here is an excerpt from a thank you letter from one of our Pandemic Fund Donation Recipients:

"Dear St. John XXIII University Parish:

On behalf of the agency, I would like to express our sincere gratitude for your generous gift of $300 on May 7, 2020 to Catholic Charities of East Tennessee. Because of you, more new mothers are learning how to care for their babies. Because of you, more children are being given a safe haven from abuse and neglect. Because of you, more families are overcoming homelessness and learning to live stable lives. Because of you, more seniors in need are being given a change to spend their golden years without worry. Your contribution is providing "360 Degrees of Hope," and for that, we are truly thankful. What a blessing your gift is!"

The Pandemic Emergency Fund helps your parish and the following groups: Catholic Charities of East Tennessee; Holy Ghost parish outreach; the Volunteer Ministry Center; the Ladies of Charity; and Holy Cross Parish outreach in Pigeon Forge. Donations can be mailed to the parish and the memo line of your checks should be marked "Pandemic Emergency Fund." Your help is still needed. Thank you.
