National Collection for Catholic Communication Campaign.

A second collection will be taken up on May 16 for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) in its work of evangelization. Working to keep the Gospel message in the world, CCC provides Catholic content for radio, the Internet, television, and print publications. CCC focuses on finding new ways to bring the Gospel message to you by working to be wherever the faithful and those seeking the faith are. CCC provides content the way you need it—on the Internet to strengthen marriage, in podcasts for daily readings, on television for Christmas Mass, and on Facebook for news, discussions, and sharing of the faith. Please be generous in the Collection and support this important work. Fifty percent of the funds collected will also assist the Diocese of Knoxville's Communications Office in our local projects.

The Enclosure of Your Heart

Some religious sisters and monks live a cloistered life within the confines of an enclosure. Non-members of that community of faith may not enter that enclosure without good reason. Others may enter only with the permission of the superior. It may be that a sister or monk is gravely ill and in need of the Sacraments, or it may be that a workman must enter for a needed repair.

The image of an enclosure is analogous to our soul. We must give the key to Jesus and allow Him to safeguard it. He will only allow those who belong to enter in. "The door to the cloister must be locked all the time, and only the Superior is to have the key" (Diary #554).

What is it that you allow into your soul? Do you allow the Lord to guard you and govern your inner thoughts and your heart? Too often, we allow many worldly things to enter. We open wide the door to the enticements of sin and filth.

Give the key to your soul to our Lord. He will guard you and keep you safe. He will welcome all those with whom He desires you dwell and open the door to those who come to heal and restore. But He will diligently protect this sacred space of your soul from that which does not belong.

Jesus tells St. Faustina: "I shall tell you the most when you speak to me in the depths of your heart, here no one can disturb my work; here I repose as in an enclosed garden." (Dairy #581)

Jesus, I trust in You.
