Second Collection for Diocesan Deacon Formation Program.

Please be generous in supporting our Diocesan Deacon Formation Program on October 17. Your donation will assist with the ongoing formation and development of the deacons now serving and currently in the formation program in the diocese. Deacons are ordained to the service of the Bishop, his priests, and the people of God. They are a bridge between the sanctuary and the world in which they live. They bring the altar to the neighborhood and bring the needs of the neighborhood to the altar. They teach and help organize charitable resources within the parish and diocese. They bring the Gospel and the gift of themselves to the soup kitchens, the food banks, prisons, hospitals and wherever else a need exists as well as to the parish they are assigned to.

Thank you for your support and generosity.

Fr. Jerry's - Tanto Magis Scis - Year of St. Joseph Looking Past the Obstacles in Life

One very common tendency and temptation most people struggle with is to become fixated upon sufferings, humiliations and the false opinions of others. When we experience one or more of these burdens, we can be tempted to make them the central focus of our life. For example, if you are unjustly humiliated and others have an erroneous opinion of you, it can be exceptionally hard to keep this from dominating your thoughts. Similarly, whatever it is that causes you grief or suffering can easily become the focal point of your life.

These tendencies must be overcome by a commitment to look beyond these obstacles and to gaze only on the Truth. What is the Truth? It's that which is in the Wisdom of God. Nothing less, nothing more, nothing other. As you seek to look beyond the struggles of life and focus only on the Truth, you will discover God's glorious Will. His Will always offers us hope, confidence and joy as we move forward in life

“O Lord, you pervade my whole being and the most secret depths of my soul. You see that all I want is You and to do Your holy will, regardless of the difficulties, suffering, humiliations, or any considerations of creatures.” (Diary of St. Faustina #1360).

If you tend to let yourself become drawn into the confusions of life, work to change the focus of your attention. Instead, look only at the Will of God. His Will is glorious, inspiring, hopeful and renewing. Pay no attention to anything that is not contained within His Divine Will and the confusion, hurt and humiliation that you struggle with will slowly disappear as it is overwhelmed by the Mercy of God.

The most powerful weapon to conquer the devil is humility. For, as he does not know at all how to employ it, neither does he know how to defend himself from it. -Saint Vincent de Paul.

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU
