Second Collection for Diocesan Deacon Formation Program.

Please be generous in supporting our Diocesan Deacon Formation Program on October 17. Your donation will assist with the ongoing formation and development of the deacons now serving and currently in the formation program in the diocese. Deacons are ordained to the service of the Bishop, his priests, and the people of God. They are a bridge between the sanctuary and the world in which they live. They bring the altar to the neighborhood and bring the needs of the neighborhood to the altar. They teach and help organize charitable resources within the parish and diocese. They bring the Gospel and the gift of themselves to the soup kitchens, the food banks, prisons, hospitals and wherever else a need exists as well as to the parish they are assigned to.

Thank you for your support and generosity.

Windows to the Mysteries of God's Mercy

Saint Faustina was asked to have an image of Jesus painted with rays of Mercy flowing from His Heart. She did so and Jesus affirmed to her that many souls would be drawn to Him through this image. It's interesting to think about the importance that Jesus and Saint Faustina gave to this image. Indeed, it speaks volumes regarding the Mercy flowing radiantly from His wounded Heart. It's also insightful to think about this in a more general way, namely, that a sacred image of any sort can become a source of Mercy. But the reason for this is that sacred art speaks a language. It communicates the Gospel message and meditating upon a sacred image opens your heart to hear God speak in a new way. “Jesus let me know spiritually that ‘Many souls have already been drawn up to My love, thanks to this picture. My mercy is working in souls thanks to this work.’ I realized that many souls have received Divine grace”. Diary of St. Faustina #1379).

Take a moment today to find the image of Divine Mercy that our Lord asked Saint Faustina to have painted. Spend quiet time looking at it and “listening” to it. What does God say to you through this image?

“Pray with great confidence, with confidence based upon the goodness and infinite generosity of God and upon the promises of Jesus Christ. God is a spring of living water which flows unceasingly into the hearts of those who pray.”

St. Louis de Montfort

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU
