God is Relentless

While here on Earth, God never ceases to pursue us and to seek our conversion. He sends His Mercy to us constantly in every way imaginable. The problem is that if your heart is “deaf and blind” it will not perceive the tireless ways that God pursues you. But even in your deafness and blindness, God speaks and pursues and seeks and attempts everything possible so as to win you for Himself.

In the end, if a soul remains obstinate and closed, God can do little more. He only needs a very small opening in order to begin His good work in us but if there is not even a small opening, then even God's active pursuit will not change our life. Open your heart to Him. Even if you are in the depths of despair, allow Him to come to you with one drop of His perfect Mercy. Never close the door completely and if you have, do not hold it shut. He will find a way if you let Him. (Diary of St. Faustina #1486).

“Let us begin in earnest to work out our salvation, for no one will do it for us, since even He Himself, Who made us without ourselves, will not save us without ourselves.” -St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU

“For a synodal Church: communion, participation, and mission.”

SPECIAL THANK YOU

To David Rearick for volunteering as our parish coordinator for the Synodal

Phase 1: Diocesan Phase (October 2021 - April 2022)
Learn more about the synodal by visiting diocese website at www.dioknox.org

“By walking together, and together reflecting on the journey made, the Church will be able to learn from what it will experience which processes can help it to live communion, to achieve participation, to open itself to mission.” Pope Francis
