Mercy, Mercy and More Mercy

You must never tire of the Mercy of God. The Mercy of God is so great and abundant that, in Heaven, you will see clearly how vast and wide it is. You will comprehend that it is incomprehensible and will never tire of contemplating its beauty.

On Earth, you may find yourself tempted to dismiss Mercy as impractical and unimportant. It may be perceived as something old and outdated. When this happens, be reminded that this is foolishness and irrational. Understanding God's Mercy must become your daily goal and daily mission. You must seek it day and night and never relent in your pursuit of this unending and unfathomable gift of God.

“My daughter, do not stop preaching My mercy; by this you will refresh My Heart, which is burning with the flame of compassion for sinners...” (Diary of St. Faustina #1521).

Ponder, today, these three simple words: Lord, have Mercy. Say them often and intentionally. Remind yourself that if you grow weary thinking about and speaking about the Mercy of God then you are failing to understand its depth and beauty.

“How happy I am to see myself imperfect and be in need of God's mercy.”

--St Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face, OCD

All gifts must be in the Church Hall by Sunday, December 12th. They must be wrapped, placed in a large plastic bag with the ornament tag firmly attached to the bag.
