

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION MINISTERIAL ROLES

- Pastor:
1. If proclaiming the Gospel usually receives the bishop's blessing.
 2. After the Post Communion Prayer, the pastor says in these or similar words, as applicable, thanks:
 - Ex: The devoted efforts of our staff and volunteers deserve every recognition and commendation. We sincerely thank our parish staff, parish volunteers, our newly confirmed and their families and sponsors, parish/school director of religious education, Confirmation coordinator, program preparer, catechists, lectors, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, musicians, servers, ushers, decorators, sacristans and reception hosts.

(Individual names of some may be mentioned, if desired).

OR

- Ex: Our Confirmation program lists many of the people who have made this celebration so special. I thank all who are so listed. Specifically, I mention by name (1-3 people).
- a) by name, the parochial vicar, deacon, DRE/CRE, Confirmation coordinator, principal, teachers/catechists, music director, emcee, liturgical minister, hospitality minister, reception preparers, youth minister. (If the names are already listed in the program, as is highly recommended, or program insert as recommended, a general reference can be made);
 - b) by category, the lectors, Eucharistic ministers, musicians, ushers, decorators and reception preparers;
 - c) by category, the parents and sponsors for their support and encouragement of the newly confirmed;
 - d) invites everyone to the reception and indicates its place.
Ex: A reception follows the ceremony in _____. All are invited”.

(Bishop will then thank Pastor & newly confirmed & will conclude with personal comments.)
