Church law requires one Roman Catholic godparent to be chosen for Baptism. To be a Godparent one must be a practicing Roman Catholic who has already received the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Communion, and is at least 16 years of age. When a second godparent is chosen, he/she must be of a different gender from the first godparent (godfather and godmother). When the second person who is not a Catholic is chosen, this person can act as a witness as long as he/she is a baptized and practicing Christian.

The godparent(s) will be: Godparents/Witnesses: please record the name of the religion you were Baptised in below:
