

My daughter was preparing to receive her First Holy Communion. My heart was aching to join her. I didn't believe it was possible for me to be forgiven--maybe God could be merciful for one abortion, but five? With fear and faint hope I called Project Rachel... I joined my daughter in receiving the Eucharist on her First Holy Communion Day. My joy and gratitude are inexpressible.