Upon graduation, Fr. Orlowski continued his studies at the University of British Columbia for one year. He worked for four years as a software engineer before joining the Fraternity. He was ordained in 2004.

After his ordination, he worked in various apostolates in Canada and the U.S. He has served in an academic environment, as a teacher at St. Gregory's Academy in Elmhurst and as a Chaplain of The College of Sts. John Fisher and Thomas Moore in Fort Worth. He is currently stationed out of Ohio.

His immediate family is spread among several states, but through the use of cellular phones and conference calls, they unite in the evening to chant Compline together.
