What a wonderful week we have had here at Trinity Catholic School! We had not 1, but 2 fire drills this week! The students and staff all participated in a Living Rosary on Thursday in the parking lot. It was such a beautiful display of our Catholic faith! We ended the week with All School Mass and a presentation of our 1st grade students who dressed up as Saints. I'm sure that there will definitely be some real future Saints among them. God bless their hearts and keep them in your prayers!

Thank you to all of the volunteers that helped move our Halloween celebration inside on Friday. I'm sad that the weather didn't cooperate and we couldn't get back to the wonderful traditions of parading around town and enjoying Trunk or Treat and games outside! There's always next year!

I hope you all have a wonderful 3 day weekend! See you on Tuesday!

Blessings, Angie Eisenacher
