Our 8th grade students wrapped up their retreat to Camp Damascus this afternoon. I had the honor of being with them on Thursday and to say it was nothing short of amazing is an understatement! It is beautiful how these camp counselors can connect with the students on such a spiritual level. Then sprinkle in all of the fun activities like high ropes, archery, and scavenger hunts. It was AWESOME!

We were blessed to have Father Andrzej preside over the Mass on Thursday! He told the students that their relationship with God shouldn't be a game of Hide and Seek. God never hides from us. He is always there, they just have to seek Him. He urged them to seek God often, not just when they find they are needing something. I thought this was a wonderful reminder for us all!

Blessings, Angie Eisenacher
