

Interviewing Basics – go to this link for the articles:
<http://www.vault.com/interviews>

---

Preparing for the Interview

Your cover letter asks for an interview. Your résumé shows why you should be invited for an...

Practicing for the Interview

Preparing for the interview also includes learning as much as you can about interviewing. You...

Interview Etiquette

The phrase, "Actions speak louder than words" is true. Most communication takes place...

How to Make a Good Impression

First impressions are made in less than a minute, often before a person even opens his or her...

Types of Interviews

In your job search, you will likely encounter different types of interviews. Companies are...

Typical Interview Questions

Many interview questions will be straightforward ("How long did it take you to complete your...

Typical Interview Skills Tests

Some interview "questions" are not really questions at all but a test of your skills....

Coping with Difficult Interviews and Questions

Early in my career, I interviewed with a woman I knew outside of the professional arena. She...

Prepare Your Own Questions for the Interview

Remember, the interview is a two-way street. You are there to learn more about the position and...

What to Do After the Interview

While it is okay to relax a bit after the interview, your pre-job work is not yet done. Some...

Tracking Accomplishments and Keeping Your Resume Up to Date

Congratulations! You got the job! After you celebrate and learn the ropes of the new position...