COME, HOLY SPIRIT, COME

Many times in the Hebrew scriptures we see God coming to earth as a mighty wind. So when we hear of the mighty wind filling the house in Acts today, we know without being told that God is there, acting among the disciples. God fills them, and us, with the Holy Spirit. The disciples are able to preach the Good News to all the peoples of the earth, gathered there symbolically in Jerusalem. God wants the word to spread beyond the Mediterranean, eventually all the way to the Arctic Sea!

And the word is unity. By the power of the Holy Spirit, we are all one in Christ. There are different gifts given to each member of the body, but each gift is a manifestation of the Spirit. Each person, each culture of people has different gifts. That's what makes the body of Christ strong. Let us take care never to suppress another's gifts, even though we might not understand them. To suppress a gift would give injury to the body of Christ.

UNITED IN LOVE

All throughout this Easter season, we have heard about the radical love Jesus calls us to share in this world. God gives us the Spirit so that we humans have the strength to love as Jesus loved. This love that doesn't discriminate, that celebrates the diverse gifts of God's creation, this is the love that we have the power to share. To love as Christ loves, to act as Jesus did, is something you and I can do because we are filled with the power of the Holy Spirit. We can be people of peace, we can feed the hungry, clothe the naked. We can choose not to go to war. We can choose to lift up the gifts of those different from us. We are Christians—we are people of love.

Today's Readings:

Acts 2:1-11 - Descent of the Holy Spirit
1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 - Many gifts, one Spirit, and the analogy of the body
John 20:19-23 - Appearance to the disciples or John 14:15-16, 23b-26 - The Advocate

Question for Adults - What gift of service have you received from the Holy Spirit and how well are you using it right now?

Question for Kids - What gift do you hope to receive from the Holy Spirit? How could you use it to serve others?

Prayer of the Week

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come Holy Spirit, fill my heart with Your holy gifts.

Let my weakness be penetrated with Your strength this very day that I may fulfill all the duties of my state consciously, that I may do what is right and just.

Assist me, O Holy Spirit, in all my trials of life, enlighten me in my ignorance, advise me in my doubts, strengthen me in my weakness, help me in all my needs, protect me in temptations and console me in afflictions.

Graciously hear me, O Holy Spirit, and pour Your light into my heart, my soul, and my mind. Amen.

Pentecost

Happy birthday to the Catholic Church! Happy birthday to you, who are the body of the Church!

Did you know you have a second birthday? Because you are part of the body of the Church, Pentecost is the Church's birthday, and yours as well. And like any birthday, it's a cause for celebration.

The word Pentecost is Greek and it means "50th day." Fifty days after Easter, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and their followers, and the beginning of their ministry to make disciples of all nations.

At Pentecost, the Apostles and their followers were gathered in a room. Jews from all over the world were gathered with Peter, the leader of the Apostles. At this time, a great wind blew and a flame appeared as a tongue of fire, which split itself into many individual flames above the heads of all those present. The Holy Spirit came upon these people and each began to speak in tongues. Despite the fact many had no common language, they were perfectly able to understand one another.

Peter then called all those present to be baptized and about three thousand people were baptized that day. These people were among the first Catholics, and Peter is the first pope of the Catholic Church.

The symbols of Pentecost are the flame, wind, and the dove, which represents the Holy Spirit. The color of Pentecost is red and the priest wears red vestments on this day.

Liturgical Bits & Bytes Understanding the Mass

Who are the Music Ministers at Mass?

We refer to the instrumentalists and vocalists who lead us in song as the music ministers. And so they are.

However, this can be misleading, because WE, the COMMUNITY, are the primary music ministers in liturgy. Our job is to sing the songs, to witness to our faith to one another through our singing, and to encourage others to do the same through our enthusiastic song. It is important that we support one another in song and that we hear one another and are not overwhelmed by electronic amplification or muted by sound-absorbing materials. Singing together is an important element of the liturgy which transforms us from independent individuals to a unified worshipping body.

If we feel we do not sing well, we can always remember that Psalm 95:1 invites us to make a "joyful noise" in our praise of God.

The Function of Musicians

If we, the gathered assembly, are the primary music ministers, what is the function of those whom we label music ministers?

They lead us in our songs. They provide the mechanics which enable us to sing together and in tune. Their formation and expertise in liturgical music enables them to select appropriate songs for this community to celebrate this liturgy with these readings on this particular day. Among other things, they can on occasion provide solo music for inspiration (perhaps during the Preparation of the Gifts or Communion) or also can enhance the ambiance (for example, through prelude and postlude music.)

Catch Yourself Helping Others!

Catholic Charities Maine Parish Social Ministry set out numerous small drop boxes in parishes throughout the diocese this past Lent to encourage parishioners to insert a brief note about how they are helping others in this special season leading up to Easter. The many responses that came in were both positive and heartfelt! Here are just a few of them. --Listen to the elderly, --Pick up some litter, --Visit someone who is lonely, --Sharing stuff, --Treat a friend to a trip, --Working behind the scenes to help others, --Taking people to food pantries, --Babysitting above and beyond,--By not being negative or critical of anything, --I try to do something good every day. Thank you for your participation in this activity, and, for the good works and daily kind deeds that you do! CCM Parish Social Ministry looks forward to doing something similar for Lent next year.
