Eighteenth Week of Ordinary Time

On the Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the first reading from Ecclesiastes offers a powerful caution about focusing too much on the things of this world: "Vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!" In Luke's gospel Jesus tells the parable of the rich man storing up treasures for the future, and he warns, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Alphonsus Liguori, Bishop and Doctor of the Church; Thursday the Memorial of Saint John Vianney, Priest, and Saturday the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord, with its own special readings.

This week we complete our readings from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah. Friday and Saturday have the consoling readings from the Prophet Nahum and the Prophet Habakkuk, "the vision still has its time."

RICOS, SÍ; PERO DE LO QUE VALE A LOS OJOS DE DIOS

- Trabajar con honradez, aunque nunca lleguemos a acumular grandes bienes en este mundo...
- Tenderle la mano a quien nos necesita, aun a riesgo de que alguno “nos agarre el pie” o “nos vea la cara”...
- Perdonar las ofensas, aunque nos digan que “no tenemos dignidad” o que “somos unos cobardes”...

Todo lo demás, a los ojos de Dios, es lo de menos.

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Have you been attending Mass with us and have some questions about the Catholic Church, the Eucharist, Confession, Mary, etc.?

Have you been a Catholic all your life, but for some reason or another, have not received the Sacraments of Confirmation or the Eucharist?

Have you been away from the Catholic Church...and have now returned, but want to know more about its teachings?

Have you joined us from a different faith tradition and would like to know more about the Catholic Church?

If any of these questions apply to you, we would like to help you in your journey! Or if you know of anyone who could answer “yes” to any of these questions, perhaps you could extend an invitation to them! RCIA is not a program but a process that one goes through when becoming Catholic or completing their Sacraments of Initiation.

Please contact Deacon Jim Starr @ 972-563-3643
