

A Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Breathe in me O Holy Spirit that my thoughts may all be holy;

Act in me O Holy Spirit
that my works, too, may be holy;

Draw my heart O Holy Spirit that I love but what is holy;

Strengthen me O Holy Spirit
to defend that is holy;

Guard me then O Holy Spirit that I always may be holy.

Father's Day Novena

Beginning on Father's Day, Sunday, June 18th, we will begin a Novena of Masses (nine masses) offered for all our fathers, both living and deceased, whose names are submitted with the Mass Intention envelopes provided for this special occasion. These envelopes have been placed in the pews of the church this weekend. You may turn them into the office or place them in the collection baskets. You may also give them to Fr. Orosco after Mass. We will also remember your intentions throughout the entire month of June in our Prayers of the Faithful.

Crochet Ministry News

The Crochet Ministry will meet Monday, June 5th at 1:00pm at the Casa St. John.

Blessing for Expectant Mothers

This weekend we will have our monthly blessing for expectant mothers of our parish after all the Masses.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I will be on a Diocesan Meeting for Priests this coming week. There will be no daily Mass Monday - Thursday. We will have Mass on Friday, June 9th at 8:00 A.M.

Sound Catholic practice encourages us to offer the Mass for the departed and for those in any need. To request a Mass to be offered, please visit the parish office or return to the office a completed Mass intention card. Available cards are located in the foyer of the church.

Anointing of the Sick

Sacrament of Anointing Because of the Privacy Act, hospitals and nursing homes are no longer able to provide a list of the Catholic patients/residents for the Churches use in order to visit and administer the Sacraments of Holy Communion or Anointing of the Sick. Therefore, I need your assistance when you have a family member who is hospitalized or in a nursing home. Please call Fr. Orosco at the Church Office at (972) 563-3643 so that I may be of assistance.

Ninth Week of Ordinary Time

Sunday is the Feast of Pentecost. It is the birthday of the Church and the end of the Easter Season. The Acts of the Apostles tells the Pentecost story of the coming of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles. The Gospel of John tells how Jesus gave his Spirit to the Apostles on Easter Sunday, along with his own peace and the mission to forgive sins.

As we resume Ordinary Time this week, we begin reading from the Book of Tobit - a righteous man in the midst of those deported to Assyria. It is a story of great faith and fidelity in the midst of persecution.

We return to reading from Mark's Gospel this week. Jesus is speaking "to the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders in parables." He reveals that he is the "stone rejected by the builders." They try to snare him in traps and he tells them to give "to God what belongs to God." He defends the resurrection, against the Sadducees who mock it. He's asked what is the greatest commandment and he gives them two: "The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." While these religious leaders spurn him, the ordinary people take delight in Jesus. He denounces the showy corruption of some of the religious leaders which recognizing the small but powerful donation of a poor widow.

Daily Prayer This Week

We can reflect on the gift of the Holy Spirit to us all week. Throughout the week, we can reflect on the gifts the Holy Spirit gives us: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. This isn't to notice what we lack, but to notice what we desire. Who among us doesn't need more wisdom, or my fortitude - in the midst of the challenges we face? Asking for these graces can fill our week. Similarly, we can ask for the fruits of the Holy Spirit, which Paul describes: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. We can certainly imagine desiring - and being open to these all week.

Tobit is a great story. Listening to this story can certainly help us ask ourselves what being a person of integrity would look like for us, in our place in life at this time.

We can also enjoy the way Jesus resists the insincerity of the religious leaders of his day. They have a hard time with his being so merciful and the very human manifestation of God in their midst. It is wonderful to ask for the grace to be as open as I can to receiving him as the Lord of my life - embracing his pattern and example of mercy and love.

We can let ourselves relate with each person of the Trinity this week, to prepare for Sunday's celebration. Speaking with our Father, in our own words, especially giving thanks for the gift of all creation, can renew that relationship with our Father. Talking with Jesus, friend to friend this week can be a great grace. And, asking the Holy Spirit to fill our heart with the fire of his love, that the Spirit might renew us and help in the mission of renewing the face of the earth.

2) Favor de notificar la oficina de la Iglesia (972-563-3643) si tiene un cambio de domicilio o cambio de número de teléfono.

Comunión Espiritual

Consiste en un ardiente deseo de recibir a Jesús Sacramentado, y se puede hacer, interiormente, siempre y en cualquier lugar que nos halleemos. He aquí una formula fácil de retener en la memoria:

Jesús mío, creo que estás realmente presente en el Santísimo Sacramento. Te amo sobré todas las cosas y deseo que vengas a mi alma. No puedo recibirte ahora sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.

Como si ya hubieras venido te abrazo y me uno toda a Ti; no permitas que jamás me separe de Ti. Eterno Padre, te ofrezco la Sangre Preciosísima de Jesucristo en expiación de mis pecados y por las necesidades de la Santa Iglesia.
