

A Daily Prayer

O Jesus, you are full of mercy;
give your grace to me, I pray.

May your grace be with me;
may it give me strength,

and may it stay with me to the end of my life,
Help me to desire only what you desire for me,
what is most dear to your divine heart.

May whatever I want also be exactly what you want for me;

help me to desire only that.

Help me likewise to reject and hate what you also hate.

Imitating your son, let me die to myself,

let me die to all that is not of you

even if that means being rejected during my lifetime.

Above all, O Jesus, plant within me the desire to rest only in you and find my peace only in you.

You are the true source of all peace

and every heart find rest only in you;

indeed, apart from you everything is restless.

I long, therefore, to live always near your great heart.

AMEN.

Sound Catholic practice encourages us to offer the Mass for the departed and for those in any need. To request a Mass to be offered, please visit the parish office or return to the office a completed Mass intention card. Available cards are in the foyer of the church.

Anointing of the Sick

Because of the Privacy Act, hospitals and nursing homes are no longer able to provide a list of the Catholic patients/residents for the Churches use to visit and administer the Sacraments of Holy Communion or Anointing of the Sick. Therefore, I need your assistance when you have a family member who is hospitalized or in a nursing home. Please call Fr. Orosco at the Church Office at (972) 563-3643 so that I may be of assistance.

On the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Mark's Gospel has us listen to Jesus contrast a scribe (the professional interpreters of the law in his day) who enjoys honors for himself, with a poor widow who donates to the temple poor box the little she has. The woman's generous heart must have moved him deeply.

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Josaphat, bishop and martyr. Tuesday, we remember Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini, Virgin. Saturday is the Memorial of Saint Elizabeth of Hungary, religious.

The first readings this week are from the pastoral letters to Titus, Philemon, and the Second and Third Letter to John.

Continuing Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus talk about scandal and about forgiveness. He calls us to "have faith the size of a mustard seed" in order to do extraordinary things in his name. Jesus tells us to be obedient to what God calls us to do and simply say, "we have done what we were obliged to do." We learn a lesson about gratitude when Jesus heals ten lepers and only one, "foreigner" returns to give thanks. Jesus tells the confrontational Pharisees that the Kingdom of God's coming can't be "seen" and it won't be announced. "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you." "But first [the Son of Man] must suffer greatly and be rejected by this generation." All we can do is to be faithful: "Whoever seeks to preserve his life will lose it, but whoever loses it will save it." Finally, Jesus tells the parable "about the necessity for [his disciples] to pray always without becoming weary." God will give justice to those who call out to him with faith.

“HA ECHADO TODO LO QUE TENIA PARA VIVIR”

Jesús alabó a la viuda que echó dos moneditas en una de las alcancías del templo, porque había echado más que todos, echó “todo lo que tenía para vivir”.

- Este relato evangélico deja claro que Dios no se deja engañar por apariencias, que él ve el corazón de las personas.
- Hay gente que sigue dando a Dios todo lo que tiene para vivir; es más, su vida entera.

Siguiendo estos criterios de Jesús, valoremos a las personas que consagran su vida al Señor en el servicio a sus hermanos.
