On the Thirty-Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. In the first reading from the Book of Daniel, we read of a vision he has of “one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven.” In John’s Gospel Jesus tells Pilate, “You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.”

Friday is the Feast of St. Andrew the Apostle, with its own special readings.

The first reading all week is continues from the mystical Book of Revelation.

In this last week of Ordinary Time, we have readings from Luke’s Gospel, which grow more explicit about the end time as Jesus and his disciples draw closer to Jerusalem. Jesus watches rich people make donations at the Temple but when a poor widow drops in two small coins he notes that her donation is far larger for “she, from her poverty, has offered her whole livelihood.” He speaks of the end time, and cautions that many will claim to come in Jesus’ name. “Do not follow them!” He says that the cost of following him may be high and may lead to trials and divisions in families. But, he says, “By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” In a dramatic look at the end time, Jesus says, “And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.” Just as we know what the signs in nature tell us - fig trees in bloom announce the coming of summer - Jesus want us to be aware of the signs of the coming of the Kingdom: “when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near.” Finally, he tells us not to let our “hearts be drowsy” from drunkenness or anxiety but to be vigilant at all times and to pray for the strength we will need for the “tribulations that are imminent and to stand before the Son of Man.”
