The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time begins to take us through Luke's Gospel. We will follow it each week until February when Lent begins; it picks up again after the Easter season when Ordinary Time returns. It introduces Jesus as returning to Galilee "in the power of the Spirit" where he goes to the synagogue and teaches from Isaiah: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor." He ends with the stunning words "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

Monday is the Memorial of Saint Thomas Aquinas, Priest and Doctor of the Church. Thursday is the Memorial of Saint John Bosco, Priest. Saturday is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord.

The first reading this week continues with the Letter to the Hebrews which teaches that Jesus is mediator of a new covenant and a priest who "offered one sacrifice for sins. He took his seat forever at the right hand of God."

In Mark's Gospel this week, the ever-critical scribes accuse Jesus of being possessed by demons. Jesus responds clearly, "If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand." When told his family has arrived to see him, he replies that "whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." He tells the imaginative story of the sower and the seed and after the crowd dispersed, Jesus explains to the disciples that the seed is the word of God, accepted at various levels. He encourages his disciples to show their light: "Is a lamp brought in to be placed under a bushel basket or under a bed, and not to be placed on a lampstand?" Jesus compares the Kingdom with the tiniest of mustard seeds which grow to "the largest of plants." He calms the seas during a storm. His disciples wonder, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

LA MISIÓN DE JESÚS CONTINÚA EN SU IGLESIA

En la sinagoga de Nazaret, Jesús leyó el pasaje del profeta Isaías en el que se anunciaba su propia misión.

El año de gracia del Señor es el tiempo de nuestra vida. Él nos ofrece esta única oportunidad de convertirnos a él y alcanzar la vida eterna.

A nosotros ahora nos toca continuar la obra de Jesús.
