Fourth Week of Ordinary Time

On the Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, Luke's gospel continues the story of the Jesus teaching in the synagogue. The crowd, although "amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth" began to challenge Jesus. He responds that "no prophet is accepted in his own native place" and challenges their assumptions, angering the crowd. When they try to drive him out of town, he passes through their midst.

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Agatha, Virgin and Martyr. Wednesday is the Memorial of the Japanese Jesuit Saint Paul Miki and his Companions, Martyrs.

The first reading this week continues with the Letter to the Hebrews. Jesus is priest and we should not be discouraged.

In Mark's Gospel this week, Jesus continues to heal and teach. A man in the Gerasenes is healed of unclean spirits and wants to stay with Jesus but he tells the man, "Go home to your family and announce to them all that the Lord in his pity has done for you." The young daughter of a synagogue official is sick and on the way to cure her, as Jesus stood in a crowd, he felt the power go out of him as a woman with a hemorrhage touched his cloak. "Your faith has saved you," he reassures her. To the synagogue official he says, "Do not be afraid; just have faith" and heals his daughter. He teaches in the synagogue in his hometown "and they took offense at him." He was not able to perform miracles there, because of their lack of faith. Jesus sends his apostles, in twos, to share the good news. After publicly promising a dancer anything she wants, Herod reluctantly gives the girl her wish and orders John the Baptist to be beheaded. When Jesus' disciples return from their journeys, he encourages them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." But as they tried to get away "and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things."

“NADIE ES PROFETA EN SU TIERRA”

En la sinagoga de Nazaret, Jesús dijo a sus oyentes que el Profeta anunciado por Isaías estaba delante de ellos.

- ❖ A pesar de que los asistentes “admiraban la sabiduría de las palabras que salían de sus labios”, ellos no querían creer en él, porque no cabía en su cabeza que “el hijo de José”, el carpintero, fuera el enviado del Padre del cielo.
- ❖ Por esa alta de fe, Dios sólo pudo realizar unos cuantos milagros en Israel, en el pasado, a través de los profetas Elías y Eliseo.
- ❖ También ahora, por nuestra falta de fe:
 - ✚ Dios no puede perdonar nuestros pecados por medio de un sacerdote, si no creemos que puede hacerlo por el sacramento del Orden que recibió.
 - ✚ No prestamos atención a lo que nos dicen otras personas cuando nos comparten la experiencia de Dios en su vida.
 - ✚ No creemos que se pueda vivir como Dios manda, aunque los santos hayan demostrado lo contrario.

Que el Señor
nos conceda la gracia
de creerle.
