The Fifth Week in Ordinary Time

On the Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time, we reflect on Luke's gospel's marvelous call of Peter. Jesus preaches from Peter's boat, invites Peter out into "deeper water" and shows him his power to catch fish. When Peter recoils in fear, Jesus calls him to gather people with Jesus' same power.

Thursday is the Memorial of Saints Cyril and Methodius.

For the next two weeks, our first reading on the weekdays will be the from the Book of Genesis. This week begins with the stirring story of creation, one that will be repeated at the Easter Vigil.

Mark's Gospel continues with stories of Jesus' healing and of his challenging and being challenged by the religious authorities. "People immediately recognized him. They scurried about the surrounding country and began to bring in the sick on mats." The Pharisees and scribes question Jesus asking, "Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?" A frustrated Jesus responds, "You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." Jesus challenges the people to disregard rules about being defiled by food but to avoid the evil desires and deeds that defile their hearts. Traveling north into pagan territory, Jesus visits a woman whose daughter has an unclean spirit. Jesus heals her because the mother believes in him. On his way back, Jesus heals a man, allowing him to hear and speak again. Jesus feeds 4,000 people for whom he is moved with pity.

APRENDAMOS A PESCAR PARA EL SEÑOR

Jesús llamó a Pedro, a Santiago y a Juan. Luego llamó al resto de los doce apóstoles, y, a partir de ellos, a todos los que iban a formar su Pueblo santo, o sea, nosotros, su Iglesia.

- Así como Jesús hizo “pescadores de hombres” a esos hombres, así también quiere que nosotros “atrapemos” para él a quienes quiere salvar.
- ¿De qué nos quiere salvar el Señor? Del pecado, (que nos destruye) de la muerte eterna (a causa del pecado) y del demonio (el “homicida desde el principio”).
- Pero antes tenemos que “dejarnos atrapar” por Jesús, considerando el gran amor que nos ha manifestado.
- ¡Hay que trabajar para que muchas personas caigan en las redes de Jesús, las del amor verdadero!

Confiemos en la palabra de Jesús, y echemos las redes.

Grupo de Oración

El Grupo de Oración se reúnen cada lunes a las 7pm en la Casa San Juan.
