1 Timothy 4:12

The Fifth Sunday of Easter brings us stories from Acts of the Apostles of Paul and Barnabas and their work in the early church. They spread the good news to the Gentiles and then “called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.” John's Gospel returns to the Last Supper. Jesus gives his followers a new way of life: “This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

All week, as we read about the inspiring development in the early community - with the acceptance of the good news by the Gentiles - we experience the assurance of Jesus.

The Gospels this week continue the “Last Discourse” of our Lord, taking chapters 14 and 15 of the Fourth Gospel.

In these marvelous chapters we experience Jesus, “the way, the truth and the light.” He consoles his disciples with the gift of his peace, which is different than the peace the world offers.

What Jesus gives is a relationship as close as a vine is to its branches. He calls us to remain connected with him so that we can remain fruitful. Without him, we dry up and wither. When we are so united with Jesus, we can ask him for whatever we need to be fruitful. His invitation is for us to remain in his love, to make our home there. The resulting relationship is that of a friend. And this friendship is his gift to us - not our choosing him, but Jesus choosing us as friends who can open our hearts to him.

Therefore, in this relationship of connectedness and fruitful love flowing to us and through us to others, Jesus says that the one command he gives us is that we love one another – that we stay loving and fruitful.

Finally, Jesus reminds us that if the world didn't like his announcing and living of this good news, then it won't like our announcing and living it either.

En aquellos días, volvieron Pablo y Bernabé a Listra, Iconio y Antioquía, y ahí animaban a los discípulos y los exhortaban a perseverar en la fe, diciéndoles que hay que pasar por muchas tribulaciones para entrar en el Reino de Dios.

AMARNOS LOS UNOS A LOS OTROS, COMO CRISTO NOS HA AMADO

En la noche en que iba a ser entregado, durante la Última Cena, Jesús nos dejó este mandamiento nuevo.

- ¿Cómo nos ha amado Cristo? Él nos amó “hasta el extremo”, es decir, hasta darlo todo.
- Por eso, un verdadero esposo cristiano se mantiene fiel a su mujer y la mujer a su marido “hasta que la muerte los separe”.
- Por eso un sacerdote tiene que mantenerse fiel a sus promesas, amar a sus hermanos hasta el cansancio y dar testimonio de Cristo hasta derramar su sangre por él, si fuera necesario.

“...y por este amor reconocerán todos que ustedes son mis discípulos”.
