Religious Education

Seventh Week of Easter

Volunteers are needed for the 2019-2020 Religious Education program. Classes meet during the school year on Sunday morning from 9:25-10:15am and Tuesday and Wednesday evening from 6:30-7:30pm. If you are interested, please call Michelle in the Church office at 972-563-3643.

On Sunday, most of the world will celebrate the Ascension of the Lord, and the dioceses who celebrated the feast earlier, will celebrate the Seventh Sunday of Easter. As if in preparation for Pentecost Sunday, we read in Acts of the stoning of Stephen, who is “filled with the Holy Spirit.” In John's Gospel the poetic words of Jesus are a love song to us as he prays to his Father, “Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me....”

During the upcoming week, the first reading continues from the Acts of the Apostles. We are following the preaching and ministry of Paul. We can feel his intensity as he urges the Ephesians to follow his example in living the faith “I served the Lord with all humility and with the tears and trials that came to me...” He returns to Jerusalem to face persecution but remains under house arrest, teaching and meeting with followers.

The gospels are from John's Gospel, chapter 16 and 17. Jesus warns his disciples that they will be scattered and says they will find trouble in the world but assures them he has conquered the world. Jesus' prayer reflects the passionate, inseparable nature between him and his Father. “I glorified you on earth by accomplishing the work that you gave me to do.” “I pray ... that they may all be one ... as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us.” Jesus challenges Peter three times to “feed my sheep” and the Easter season comes to a close as John's gospel concludes on Saturday. These wonderful readings end: “There are also many other things that Jesus did, but if these were to be described individually, I do not think the whole world would contain the books that would be written.”

CRISTO ASCIENDE AL CIELO Y ESTA SENTADO A LA DERECHA DEL PADRE

Cuarenta días después de haber resucitado, Jesús sube al cielo. El que es Cabeza de la Iglesia la antecede en el Reino glorioso del Padre, para que nosotros, que formamos su Cuerpo Místico, “vivamos en la esperanza de estar un día con él eternamente”.

- Una vez que completó su misión en la tierra, con el anuncio del Reino, la institución de su Iglesia, y de redimirnos con su Pasión, Muerte y resurrección, el que salió del Padre vuelve a él.
- Ahora intercede de continuo por nosotros “como el mediador que nos asegura permanentemente la efusión del Espíritu Santo”.

“Desde allí ha de venir
A juzgar a vivos y muertos”.
