Because of the Privacy Act, hospitals and nursing homes are no longer able to provide a list of the Catholic patients/residents for the Churches use in order to visit and administer the Sacraments of Holy Communion or Anointing of the Sick. Therefore, I need your assistance when you have a family member who is hospitalized or in a nursing home. Please call Fr. Sunday is the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. We are encouraged to embrace humility. The first reading from the Book of Sirach says it simply: "Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God." In Luke's gospel is a beloved story of Jesus saying, "do not recline at table in the place of honor" at a banquet. "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Tuesday is the Memorial of Saint Gregory the Great, Pope and Doctor of the Church.

Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians concludes on Tuesday. Wednesday, we begin a week of readings from the Letter to the Colossians, with its gracious salutation and encouragement. The readers are exhorted to see Christ as the "head of the body" noting that all is created "in and through him."

We now move from Matthew to Luke's Gospel, which we will read on weekdays from now until Advent begins. We will feel the special way the evangelist will highlight healing, mercy, the poor, women, prayer, the Spirit and a gospel for a new, all inclusive, Israel.

Jesus teaches in the synagogue and reads from Isaiah: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Jesus heals a man with demons. He heals Simon's mother-in-law, and all the sick they brought him. "I must proclaim the good news of the Kingdom of God, because for this purpose I have been sent." He calls out to three discouraged fishermen to lower their nets, to show them his power. Peter is overwhelmed and protests he is unworthy. "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." At Jesus' persistence, Peter, James and John leave their nets to follow Jesus. The week ends with Jesus' tangling with the Pharisees who challenge the fasting of his disciples. "Can you make the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them?" He deflects the criticism by telling them "no one pours new wine into old wineskins." When his critics note that his disciples were "unlawful" by picking heads of grains to eat, he tells them, "The Son of Man is lord of the sabbath."

INVERSIONES A FUTURO

El verdadero cristiano tiene que ser humilde, es decir, ha de conocer sus limitaciones y aceptar la verdad de lo que es, y debe evitar a toda costa la soberbia o el orgullo, que nos “arraiga en la maldad”, porque a final de cuentas, como dice Jesús, “el que se engrandece a sí mismo será humillado, y el que se humilla, será engrandecido”.

- Eso implica saber escuchar, ser observadores y prudentes y no cansarnos nunca de pedirle a Dios la sabiduría que procede de él.
- También conlleva confiar en el Señor en cada momento de nuestra vida, sabiendo que a él no se le escapa nada, porque “es el juez de todos los hombres”.
- Tenemos que invertir nuestro tiempo y esfuerzo en acercarnos a Dios, y todo esfuerzo verdadero para ayudar a los menos favorecidos que nosotros siempre será recompensado por él.

“ya se te pagará,
cuando resuciten los justos”.
